Reds Surprised By U. S. Power

Postwar Yank Plans Bared By Yalta Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kremlin must have been surprised at the size of United States forces used to resist communism in Europe and Asia after World War II.

For Marshal Stalin heard from President Roosevelt at the Yalta conference that the United States would not keep troops in Europe for more than about two years after the war and did not plan troops in Korea at all.

In retrospect, it appears possible this may have influenced Soviet strategy for expanding world communism by political maneuver, subversion and military pressure into areas of weakness.

The Yalta papers released by the State Department Wednesday night indicate that Roosevelt based his relations with Stalin during the February 1945 conference on two assumptions:

1. The supreme importance of assuring Russia's entry into the war against Japan after the defeat of Germany. His military advisers said this was essential.

2. A BELIEF that Russia would cooperate in the postwar period, and that Stalin could be trusted and dealt with confidentially.

Ten years after, the United States has the equivalent of six divisions on the Continent, air forces on the Continent and in England, and naval forces constantly operating in European waters.

Roosevelt seemed to be less concerned over the crumbling away of the British Empire (which was Churchill's first concern) than he was over getting along with Stalin, assuring Russian action against Japan and completing arrangements for Soviet cooperation in the United Nations.

Actually, it was to be about two years before the strong partnership which came to hold the line against communism developed fully between Britain and the U. S.

Panel Seeks Change In Law On Future Ohio Turnpikes

COLUMBUS (AP)—An Ohio Senate committee is trying to find a formula which might help avoid hard feelings and lawsuits along the routes of future turnpikes.

The problem: How can the Legislature change the turnpike law to require the turnpike commission to turn a sympathetic ear to the desires of cities and villages through which a turnpike might pass, and yet avoid putting any sort of curb on the commission's final authority?

The Senate Judiciary Committee believes it needs to come up with an answer. Says its chairman, Sen. William Tyrrell (R-Preble): "I don't think there's any question the turnpike commission, on its first project across northern Ohio, did some pretty high-handed things."

The committee in its search for a formula has in mind the bitterness and lawsuits which developed after the commission routed the Northern Ohio Turnpike through the cities of Elyria and Maumee.

BOTH CITIES protested, but by the time they got the word, it was too late. The route had been approved by the commission and Gov. Frank J. Lausche. Later it was upheld in court.

The lawsuits cost money, frayed tempers and set the 241-mile Pennsylvania - Indiana turnpike back by many months.

Sen. J. E. Simpson (R-Hardin) is author of a proposal before the Senate committee, but he says he isn't satisfied with it. Simpson says he simply threw in "something" to beat the bill introduction deadline more than a month ago.

White House Holds Mum On Rail Walkout

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The White House remained in the background today as negotiations continued to end the Louisville and Nashville Railroad strike, which has disrupted business in 14 Southern states.

The seriousness of the five-day-old walkout was pointed out to the President yesterday by Kentucky Gov. Lawrence Wetherby. He asked that the Railroad Emergency Board be reconvened or a new board named "to find the facts."

In Washington, Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the White House is watching the situation. He indicated, however, nothing would be done while the National Railway Mediation Board is studying the dispute.

The board that Gov. Wetherby referred to in his telegram was created in 1953 to establish a basis for settling a dispute between the nonoperating unions and the nation's railroads.

Acting on the board's recommendations, the unions and 90 per cent of the nation's railroads later reached agreements on contract improvements, including better health and welfare programs.

The L&N bowed out of the negotiation later, claiming it had a better health and welfare plan. This led to the current strike.

Boy, 14, Detained From Making Trip

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—Police today held a 14-year-old West Portsmouth boy arrested yesterday waiting to board a Detroit-bound bus. Officers said the youth had a loaded .38 caliber revolver and $2,689.17 in his pockets.

In a locker at the bus station officers found a typewriter, movie camera and binoculars, which they said had been bought by the boy.

Police said the money was taken from relatives. The boy is held in county jail. No charges have been filed.

He says he wants and expects the committee to work out the problem and come up with a good formula.

At the moment, it looks like the committee will come up with a provision setting up a new procedure something like this: The commission would be required to furnish any municipality through which it plans to extend a turnpike with the complete plans so the municipality would have a chance to determine exactly what the limited-access highway would do to the town. The municipality would be given a time limit, probably 90 days, to approve or disapprove the plans. Then the turnpike commission, forewarned, of the town's attitude, would make its final decision.

The Senate Committee seems to feel a provision for consultation with local officials should be written into law rather than leaving such a policy to a whim of an appointed official.

Jet Trainer Crash Kills Virginia Flier

DAYTON (AP)—The second Ohio crash in four days of a T-33 jet training plane has killed another Air Force pilot.

He is Capt. Harold C. Fischer of Alexandria, Va., whose plane yesterday crashed and exploded on a farm 15 miles north of here.

The explosion dug a crater 20 feet wide and 15 feet deep, and scattered wreckage over a mile-square area.

The crash followed that of a T-33 trainer last Sunday near Portsmouth when Capt. Frank S. Norris of Dayton was killed.

U. N. Council Studies Report On Palestine

Israel 'Responsible' For Gaza Fight; Arabs Come In For Raps, Too

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Security Council members today studied a personal report by the U. N. Palestine truce chief on the Feb. 28 Gaza battle in preparation for further debate on the Egyptian-Israeli fighting.

The 11-nation group recessed its formal discussion yesterday after Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, head of the truce supervising organization, made it plain that he held Israel responsible for the clash in which 38 Egyptians and 8 Israelis died.

But Burns' report also upheld an Israeli contention that continued Egyptian infiltration across the border is one of the main causes of tension in the Holy Land.

He said Egyptian authorities "should take appropriate measures" to stop such moves.

The council adjourned subject to call by its president, Selim Sarper of Turkey. Its next meeting probably will be Tuesday.

Egyptian Ambassador Omar Loutfi called on the council to punish Israel as an aggressor. He suggested it might even invoke sanctions—economic, political or military—to prevent other incidents.

Israeli sources indicated they expect the council to limit itself to lesser action.

The U. N. truce chief told the council his investigators found that Israeli Army troops launched the attack on an Egyptian military camp near Gaza and a truckload of Egyptian reinforcements.

Burns said it was "most important to assess the causes contributory to this grave incident." Citing Israeli charges of Egyptian spying, murder and sabotage inside Israel, he added:

"The Gaza incident could appear in this context as retaliation for the spying, sabotage and murders for which the Egyptian military intelligence service was said to be responsible."

The truce chief said tension between the two countries also had been heightened by Egypt's seizure of the Israeli freighter Bat Galim at Suez last Sept. 28 and her execution of two Jews in Cairo in January as Zionist spies.

Belt Conveyor Issue Booked For Hearing

COLUMBUS (AP)—The "rubber railroad" issue is still alive in the Ohio General Assembly.

Final decision in the House Commerce and Transportation Committee on the controversial bill to grant public utility status to cargo-hauling belt conveyor lines will come Tuesday night.

Chairman Louis J. Schneider Jr. (R-Hamilton) said Tuesday night there was a question in his mind whether a second vote taken last Tuesday on the question of recommending the bill for House passage might have killed the measure. The motion to recommend failed on both votes—on a 9-9 tie first and on a 9-8 favorable vote the second time. The favorable vote was one short of the 10 needed to carry the motion.

He said House rules permit only one attempt to reconsider and for that reason he believed the second failure might have been fatal.

Yesterday, he announced the belt bill will be considered further Tuesday night. That indicates he now believes the bill still is clinging to life by a thread.

Population Jumps In Cuyahoga Area

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. estimated today there were now 1,625,650 persons living in Cuyahoga County, a jump of 17 per cent since the 1950 census.

CEI based its survey on the number of electric meters in service in this county.

The last census gave the county a population of 1,389,532. CEI predicted the county's population would reach 1,830,000 by 1960.

Ohioan Says Yalta Airing Dooms Parley With Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) predicted today that publication of the Yalta papers will kill any chance of American participation in a new Big Three conference with Russia.

Vorys said that State Department publication of the 10-year-old record of the Big Three negotiations should have this "profound effect" on future planning:

"It should discourage the people of the United States from wanting to have our leaders take part in any more three or four-power secret conferences such as some of our allies are now suggesting."

British Prime Minister Churchill has periodically talked of a new Big Three conference.

Vorys said disclosure of the Yalta documents probably will produce "a lot of partisan, nonpartisan and bipartisan discussion," but he added: "I don't think it will affect our bipartisan foreign policy because everything has come out before."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said some Republicans will undoubtedly "try to use what happened at Yalta for political purposes."

But the Republican party as a whole, he said, "will have to decide whether to place their country or their party first."

Both Mansfield and Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said that, with the benefit of hindsight, it appears obvious that former President Roosevelt "made some mistakes" at Yalta, where he conferred with Churchill and Russian Premier Stalin.

But Mansfield said Roosevelt

was guided to a considerable extent by his military advisers."

Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) said the American people must learn "all the horrifying facts" of Yalta.

"The decisions we made there were very damaging," he said, adding that publication "will make the Democrats less aggressive in their attacks on President Eisenhower and more docile in following the President's foreign policy."

But Chairman Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said the question of whether the Yalta papers will wreck bipartisanship depends on whether the Republicans "attempt to exploit them."

Sen. Mundt (R-SD) agreed with Capehart, terming the documents a "political goldmine which is timeless."

Fulbright Fears Politicians Grabbing At Stock Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D - Ark.) declared today "professional Republicans" are trying to plunge the Senate stock market inquiry into partisan politics because they seem to lack confidence in the U. S. economy.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, hit back at GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who criticized the committee's inquiry last night.

Hall referred to the hearing as a vehicle for spreading "gloom and doom" and said it may well have caused the recent market price break.

"I have tried," Fulbright said, "to conduct this study of the stock market in a fair and friendly fashion and I think I have a right to object to professional Republicans attempting to interrupt this important work. I would object just as vigorously if Democratic politicians attempted to pump politics into the study."

HALL SAID the stock market developed "jitters" after Harvard economist John Kenneth Galbraith "filled the air with dire statements" in testimony before the Fulbright committee.

Hall said Galbraith is "an old-time New Dealer, ADA-type of anti-Jeffersonian radical" who has "flirted around" with one or two "pink fronts."

Galbraith, who testified March 7, told the committee he didn't expect a market crash, but urged precautions to prevent one.

"A careful reading of the record," Fulbright said "will show that he primarily urged caution."

"But even had he painted a gloomy picture, should his opinions be squelched so that the American people should be given only information that is optimistic?"

Fulbright went on to say:

"Apparently I am a great deal more confident on the strength of America than the Republican professionals are. They seem to fear that the economy can't stand examination."

For the evangelist it was a return visit to Britain. A year ago his revivals in London attracted well over a million people.

He told the welcoming party in this historic port where the Pilgrim fathers set out for America:

"I feel like a Pilgrim son coming back again. I have been a little homesick for Great Britain ever since I have been back in the United States. There is something in this country that gets down into your heart."

"I believe only a spiritual awakening can save the world and it must start in Britain, because British tentacles spread all over the world and British influence is terrific."

"Diplomacy seems to have failed in settling differences between East and West. Politically and militarily we have failed. But there is a great hope that spiritually we can find a common meeting ground between East and West."

"I don't think the world will be destroyed by the H-bomb. I am sure God will intervene before that will happen."

They rang down the curtain on the 1955 Cooking Institute Thursday night while an overflow crowd watched the proceedings in Memorial Hall.

Unofficial estimates were that more than 3,000 watched the three-show program this year. A fair portion of the closing night crowd was made up of standees.

The annual food show is sponsored by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and The Circleville Herald, with the cooperation of local merchants.

Yalta 'Haunts' Dems-Bender

Ohioan Believes Facts May 'Shock' All World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) says the story of Yalta, as disclosed by release of long-secret documents, "may well shock the conscience of the world."

Bender declared that "for years, the story of the secret negotiations at Yalta has haunted the Democratic party."

"They suppressed publication of the whole record throughout the Truman administration. Now it has been revealed and the evidence is shocking."

"We have known for some time that the Chinese were sold down the river at Yalta without being consulted. Now we know that Poland and was given away to the Russians at Yalta. We permitted the so-called election to take place without supervision. This meant that the original reason for the intervention of the Western Powers in the war against Nazi Germany was being ignored."

"GREAT BRITAIN entered the war when Hitler invaded Poland, yet our country stood by and surrendered Poland's independence at Yalta without our knowledge. At the same conference, our government proposed the dismemberment of Germany into five separate countries. This separation has been a source of never-ending difficulty to this very day."

"Not all the facts have yet been analyzed. When the record is studied, it may well shock the conscience of the entire world."

West German Assembly OKs Paris Treaties

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Bonn Parliament completed its approval of West German rearmament today. It was the ninth of the 15 national legislatures which must approve before Germans can put on Western uniforms.

Rearmament prospects improved still more as a Socialist threat of court action weakened. Socialist sources said they doubted they could get enough members of parliament to sign a petition bringing the controversial Saar agreement with France before the federal constitutional court.

The West German Bundestag (upper house) cast an overwhelming 29-9 vote today for the key Paris treaty ending the Allied occupation and approving rearmament. The Bundestag (lower house) ratified by a similar 2-1 margin Feb. 27.

Because no objection was raised, three other Paris pacts were approved in the Bundestag without a vote. They would permit Allied troops to remain in West Germany and admit the Bonn republic to the seven-nation West European Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The final Paris agreement—to put the German-speaking, coal-rich Saar under international control while leaving it linked economically to France—just squeaked through the upper house. The Bundestag vote was 21-17, paralleling the 263-202 approval in the Bundestag.

Wiggins, vice president of the Washington Post, said that "citizens can hardly judge whether their representatives have arrived at right decisions when they are not privy to the deliberations in which these decisions have emerged."

1948 Damage Suit Being Appealed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Operators of a trailer camp near Canton appealed to the Ohio Supreme Court today in a suit for damages stemming from an accident nearly seven years ago.

William J. Husarik, then 8, was burned by an explosion in a refuse can at the camp of Trail-Cab, Inc., June 5, 1948. His father, John J. Husarik, sued for damages. After earlier litigation, Husarik filed an amended petition which common pleas court struck down.

An appellate court reversed the trial court and returned the case for further proceedings. The company appealed to the high court from that decision.

Officer Shot In Raid In Shaker Heights

Submachineguns Taken By 2 Men In Daring Plot Early Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—Raiding an Ohio National Guard arsenal, two masked gunmen early today took four submachineguns and wounded one of five guardsmen in the wrist and shoulder.

"Where are the machineguns?" the holdup men demanded of the five guardsmen who were surprised shortly after midnight while they audited books of the 107th Cavalry in the armory in suburban Shaker Heights.

One of the holdup men carried a pistol, the other a sawed-off shotgun. They wore white handkerchiefs over part of their faces. The soldiers told police the men appeared to be between 20 and 25 years old and were of swarthy complexion.

Sgt. Robert Templar of East Cleveland said that when the men made their demand he took the one with the pistol into the arms room. The gunman emerged with four unloaded "grease gun" submachineguns, but did not obtain any ammunition or clips.

THE GUNMEN edged nervously toward the front door by which they had entered, the soldiers said, and then the man with the pistol fired without warning, twice hitting Warrant Officer John C. Sullivan, 26, East Cleveland.

Sullivan slumped to the floor, and the man with the sawed off shotgun fired a blast which hit no one. The gunmen left, warning the guardsmen not to follow.

The other three in the auditing group were Capt. Fred Ostrowski, 36, of Willoughby, who was in command of the detail, and Ohio National Guard Majors Donald Herbst and Addison Hudson, who were assigned from Ft. Hayes in Columbus to assist. Herbst, 37, is from Pleasant Hill and Hudson, 47, from Lancaster.

A statewide alarm was sounded shortly after the men left the one-story brick building located just a few blocks north of Shaker Square.

Father, Son Both Die In Electric Chair

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A father and son died in the electric chair early today, one still insisting he was cheated by the law.

As Roy Tarrence, 49, entered the execution chamber at Eddyville Penitentiary, he asked the executioner to "bless my wife."

"May God bless you all. May God forgive you all," he said before the black hood was slipped over his face.

When Leonard, 26, appeared, he carried a Bible and a lengthy prepared statement, which claimed the public never heard both sides in the bludgeoning slaying of a Louisville attorney.

"There will be many a lost soul suffer in hell because of this sentence," he said.

Leonard was still clutching the Bible when the first shock was sent through his body and his last request was that the book be buried with him.

They got the death sentence for killing Francis McCormack Feb. 28, 1952. He had represented Leonard's estranged wife in support proceedings.

After beating the attorney, the Tarrences threw him in a creek with a chunk of concrete bound to his body with barbed wire.

3 Judges To Hear Strangling Case

BUCYRUS (AP)—Accused of strangling his younger sister during a pillow fight, 17-year-old Frederick Spears will stand trial April 26 before a three-judge court.

Common Pleas Judge John C. Carroll yesterday granted Spears' request through his court-appointed attorney to waive a jury trial on the second degree murder charge.

His attorney, Clarence U. Shul, former common pleas and appellate court judge, entered an additional plea of innocent for the youth in yesterday's court action.

He said House rules permit only one attempt to reconsider and for that reason he believed the second failure might have been fatal.

Yesterday, he announced the bill will be considered further Tuesday night. That indicates he now believes the bill still is clinging to life by a thread.

CEI based its survey on the number of electric meters in service in this county.

The last census gave the county a population of 1,389,532. CEI predicted the county's population would reach 1,830,000 by 1960.

Ohioan Says Yalta Airing Dooms Parley With Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) predicted today that publication of the Yalta papers will kill any chance of American participation in a new Big Three conference with Russia.

Vorys said that State Department publication of the 10-year-old record of the Big Three negotiations should have this "profound effect" on future planning:

"It should discourage the people of the United States from wanting to have our leaders take part in any more three or four-power secret conferences such as some of our allies are now suggesting."

British Prime Minister Churchill has periodically talked of a new Big Three conference.

Vorys said disclosure of the Yalta documents probably will produce "a lot of partisan, nonpartisan and bipartisan discussion," but he added: "I don't think it will affect our bipartisan foreign policy because everything has come out before."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said some Republicans will undoubtedly "try to use what happened at Yalta for political purposes."

But the Republican party as a whole, he said, "will have to decide whether to place their country or their party first."

Both Mansfield and Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) said that, with the benefit of hindsight, it appears obvious that former President Roosevelt "made some mistakes" at Yalta, where he conferred with Churchill and Russian Premier Stalin.

But Mansfield said Roosevelt

was guided to a considerable extent by his military advisers."

Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) said the American people must learn "all the horrifying facts" of Yalta.

"The decisions we made there were very damaging," he said, adding that publication "will make the Democrats less aggressive in their attacks on President Eisenhower and more docile in following the President's foreign policy."

But Chairman Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said the question of whether the Yalta papers will wreck bipartisan support depends on whether the Republicans "attempt to exploit them."

Sen. Mundt (R-SD) agreed with Capehart, terming the documents a "political goldmine which is timeless."

Fulbright Fears Politicians Grabbing At Stock Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) declared today "professional Republicans" are trying to plunge the Senate stock market inquiry into partisan politics because they seem to lack confidence in the U. S. economy.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, hit back at GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who criticized the committee's inquiry last night.

Hall referred to the hearing as a vehicle for spreading "gloom and doom" and said it may well have caused the recent market price break.

"I have tried," Fulbright said, "to conduct this study of the stock market in a fair and friendly fashion and I think I have a right to object to professional Republicans attempting to interrupt this important work. I would object just as vigorously if Democratic politicians attempted to pump politics into the study."

HALL SAID the stock market developed "jitters" after Harvard economist John Kenneth Galbraith "filled the air with dire statements" in testimony before the Fulbright committee.

Hall said Galbraith is "an old-time New Deal, ADA-type of anti-Jeffersonian radical" who has "flirted around" with one or two "pink fronts."

Galbraith, who testified March 7, told the committee he didn't expect a market crash, but urged precautions to prevent one.

"A careful reading of the record," Fulbright said "will show that he primarily urged caution."

"But even had he painted a gloomy picture, should his opinions be squelched so that the American people should be given only information that is optimistic?"

Fulbright went on to say: "Apparently I am a great deal more confident on the strength of America than the Republican professionals are. They seem to fear that the economy can't stand examination."

Britons Hail Arrival Of Billy Graham

PLYMOUTH, England (AP)—Three hundred hymn singers greeted American evangelist Billy Graham on his arrival here today for a religious crusade in Scotland.

Long before dawn, the crowd gathered on the pier and serenaded Graham with his own theme song "This Is My Story, This Is My Song." He came from America on the liner Liberte.

For the evangelist it was a return visit to Britain. A year ago his revivals in London attracted well over a million people.

He told the welcoming party in this historic port where the Pilgrim fathers set out for America: "I feel like a Pilgrim son coming back again. I have been a little homesick for Great Britain ever since I have been back in the United States. There is something in this country that gets down into your heart."

"I believe only a spiritual awakening can save the world and it must start in Britain, because British tentacles spread all over the world and British influence is terrific."

"Diplomacy seems to have failed in settling differences between East and West. Politically and militarily we have failed. But there is a great hope that spiritually we can find a common meeting ground between East and West."

"I don't think the world will be destroyed by the H-bomb. I am sure God will intervene before that will happen."

West German Assembly OKs Paris Treaties

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Bonn Parliament completed its approval of West German rearmament today. It was the ninth of the 15 national legislatures which must approve before Germans can put on Western uniforms.

Rearmament prospects improved still more as a Socialist threat of court action weakened. Socialist sources said they doubted they could get enough members of parliament to sign a petition bringing the controversial Saar agreement with France before the federal constitutional court.

The West German Bundestag (upper house) cast an overwhelming 29-9 vote today for the key Paris treaty ending the Allied occupation and approving rearmament. The Bundestag (lower house) ratified by a similar 2-1 margin Feb. 27.

Because no objection was raised, three other Paris pacts were approved in the Bundestag without a vote. They would permit Allied troops to remain in West Germany and admit the Bonn republic to the seven-nation West European Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The final Paris agreement—to put the German-speaking, coal-rich Saar under international control while leaving it linked economically to France—just squeaked through the upper house. The Bundestag vote was 21-17, paralleling the 263-202 approval in the Bundestag.

Yalta 'Haunts' Dems-Bender

Ohioan Believes Facts May 'Shock' All World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) says the story of Yalta, as disclosed by release of long-secret documents, "may well shock the conscience of the world."

Bender declared that "for years, the story of the secret negotiations at Yalta has haunted the Democratic party."

"They suppressed publication of the whole record throughout the Truman administration. Now it has been revealed and the evidence is shocking."

"We have known for some time that the Chinese were sold down the river at Yalta without being consulted. Now we know that Poland was given away to the Russians at Yalta. We permitted the so-called election to take place without supervision. This meant that the original reason for the intervention of the Western Powers in the war against Nazi Germany was being ignored."

"GREAT BRITAIN entered the war when Hitler invaded Poland, yet our country stood by and surrendered Poland's independence at Yalta without our knowledge. At the same conference, our government proposed the dismemberment of Germany into five separate countries. This separation has been a source of never-ending difficulty to this very day."

"Not all the facts have yet been analyzed. When the record is studied, it may well shock the conscience of the entire world."

Secrecy Penalty Asked By Newsman

WASHINGTON (AP)—A newspaper executive said today the government should provide penalties for too much, as well as too little, use of the secret law.

J. Russell Wiggins said "there are many legal and more informal penalties for failing to classify enough material. There are no real penalties at all for excessive secrecy."

Wiggins, vice president of the Washington Post, said that "citizens can hardly judge whether their representatives have arrived at right decisions when they are not privy to the deliberations in which these decisions have emerged."

1948 Damage Suit Being Appealed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Operators of a trailer camp near Canton appealed to the Ohio Supreme Court today in a suit for damages stemming from an accident nearly seven years ago.

William J. Husarik, then 8, was burned by an explosion in a refuse can at the camp of Trail-Cab, Inc., June 5, 1948. His father, John J. Husarik, sued for damages. After earlier litigation, Husarik filed an amended petition which common pleas court struck down.

An appellate court reversed the trial court and returned the case for further proceedings. The company appealed to the high court from that decision.

His attorney, Clarence U. Shul, former common pleas and appellate court judge, entered an additional plea of innocent for the youth in yesterday's court action.

Officer Shot In Raid In Shaker Heights

Submachineguns Taken By 2 Men In Daring Plot Early Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—Raiding an Ohio National Guard arsenal, two masked gunmen early today took four submachineguns and wounded one of five guardsmen in the wrist and shoulder.

"Where are the machineguns?" the holdup men demanded of the five guardsmen who were surprised shortly after midnight while they audited books of the 107th Cavalry in the armory in suburban Shaker Heights.

One of the holdup men carried a pistol, the other a sawed-off shotgun. They wore white handkerchiefs over part of their faces. The soldiers told police the men appeared to be between 20 and 25 years old and were of swarthy complexion.

Sgt. Robert Templar of East Cleveland said that when the men made their demand he took the one with the pistol into the arms room. The gunman emerged with four unloaded "grease gun" submachineguns, but did not obtain any ammunition or clips.

THE GUNMEN edged nervously toward the front door by which they had entered, the soldiers said, and then the man with the pistol fired without warning, twice hitting Warrant Officer John C. Sullivan, 26, East Cleveland.

Sullivan slumped to the floor, and the man with the sawed off shotgun fired a blast which hit no one. The gunman left, warning the guardsmen not to follow.

The other three in the auditing group were Capt. Fred Ostrowski, 36, of Willoughby, who was in command of the detail, and Ohio National Guard Majors Donald Herbst and Addison Hudson, who were assigned from Ft. Hayes in Columbus to assist. Herbst, 37, is from Pleasant Hill and Hudson, 47, from Lancaster.

A statewide alarm was sounded shortly after the men left the one-story brick building located just a few blocks north of Shaker Square.

Father, Son Both Die In Electric Chair

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A father and son died in the electric chair early today, one still insisting he was cheated by the law.

As Roy Tarrence, 49, entered the execution chamber at Eddyville Penitentiary, he asked the "Lord to bless and keep my wife."

"May God bless you all. May God forgive you all," he said before the black hood was slipped over his face.

When Leonard, 26, appeared, he carried a Bible and a lengthy prepared statement, which claimed the public never heard both sides in the bludgeoning slaying of a Louisville attorney.

"There will be many a lost soul suffer in hell because of this sentence," he said.

Leonard was still clutching the Bible when the first shock was sent through his body and his last request was that the book be buried with him.

They got the death sentence for killing Francis McCormack Feb. 28, 1952. He had represented Leonard's estranged wife in support proceedings.

After beating the attorney, the Tarrences threw him in a creek with a chunk of concrete bound to his body with barbed wire.

Scout Speaker Gives Talk On Camping Hints

"Camping brings out the best in boys and many times the boys turn into men when confronted with the challenge of doing for themselves," William F. Kaiser told the "Conference On Youth" Thursday night. Kaiser, vice-chairman of the Olentangy District and a 30-year veteran in the Boy Scout movement, was guest speaker. The meeting was one of seven being held to train volunteer Scout leaders for Pickaway County.

"Adult Scouters who live with boys in the outdoors," Kaiser said, "feel that they are walking close to God on the hikes they take with the boys."

Kaiser's speech served to introduce the subject of "The Boy and the Outdoors." He told of his many experiences with boys at camp.

"THE WORD 'scouting' has been associated with the outdoors since the days of Daniel Boone," he said. "Boy Scouts have lost their purpose if they do not go on expeditions into the outdoors."

A demonstration of camping equipment was given by Jack Fox, Scout executive of the Central Ohio Council. Many items for camping that can be made by Scouts were shown and discussed by Fox.

Plans were discussed for an overnight camping trip to be held March 26 and 27 at Camp Lazarus. All persons interested should attend next week's meeting.

Two Accidents Add More Names To Pickaway County's 1955 List

Two accidents, one Thursday night and the other Friday morning, added several more names to an ever-growing injury list for Pickaway County.

At 7:55 p. m. Thursday, a car attempting to pass another struck the other car on Route 23 south of the city. The first car, apparently knocked out of control by the impact, skidded back across the highway and overturned.

Joseph C. Higgins, 27, of Lima, driver of the overturned car, suffered lacerations, abrasions and contusions. His passenger, Jane Dean, 32, of Springfield, received multiple abrasions about the head and face and suffered shock.

Both were treated and released from Berger Hospital. However, Higgins was cited into city court by State Patrolman Bob Greene and was fined $25 and costs for reckless driving.

DRIVER of the second car was not hurt. He is Emil Kurtz Jr., 26, of Circleville Route 1. The accident occurred 5.5 miles south of Circleville.

Patrolman Greene said that Kurtz, northbound, was preparing to make a left turn into his private drive. Higgins, also northbound, attempted to pass Kurtz but hit the left rear of Kurtz's car. The second mishap occurred at 9:45 a. m. Friday on the Circleville-Lockbourne Rd., one mile north of the intersection of Route 752. The location is three miles south of a fatal crash last Sunday.

A car containing five Lockbourne Air Base airmen reportedly attempted to pass a truck. According to the driver, Harry L. Davis, 22, the truck swerved back towards the center of the road, forcing the car into a ditch.

Four of the airmen, including Davis, suffered minor cuts and bruises. The truck driver, Junior Verlie Mitchell, 30, of Columbus, and his helper were not injured.

DAVIS SWORE OUT a warrant against Mitchell and the truck driver was fined $15 and costs in city court for failing to yield the right of way to an overtaking vehicle after an audible signal had been given. Mitchell claimed he heard no signal being given.

The accident was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

Only other city court case reported Friday was that of Cazzie Lee Tackett, 30, of Columbus. He was fined $25 and costs for using dealer's license tags on his private automobile. He was arrested by State Patrolman Gene Miller.

Hatoyama Gets Nod As Jap Premier

TOKYO (AP)—Ichiro Hatoyama was reelected prime minister late tonight by the new Diet after a coalition of rival Conservatives and Socialists defeated his candidates for speaker and vice speaker of the powerful lower House.

Hatoyama's reelection never was in serious doubt, but former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's Conservative Liberal party teamed up with both right and left Socialists to make inroads on Hatoyama's control of the Diet.

Yoshida thus was repaying kind the coalition which Hatoyama's Democrats formed with the Socialists last fall when they toppled the Yoshida Cabinet.

After the surprising Liberal-Socialist coalition blocked installation of Hatoyama lieutenants in the key House positions, the Diet recessed, delaying a vote on prime minister. It resumed after Liberal party officials said they would go down the line for Hatoyama, as they had pledged.

The depth of the split that developed over the speakers of the House still could not be determined.

Scout Speaker Gives Talk On Camping Hints

"Camping brings out the best in boys and many times the boys turn into men when confronted with the challenge of doing for themselves," William F. Kaiser told the "Conference On Youth" Thursday night.

Kaiser, vice-chairman of the Orlentang District and a 30-year veteran in the Boy Scout movement, was guest speaker. The meeting was one of seven being held to train volunteer Scout leaders for Pickaway County.

"Adult Scouters who live with boys in the outdoors," Kaiser said, "feel that they are walking close to God on the hikes they take with the boys."

Kaiser's speech served to introduce the subject of "The Boy and the Outdoors." He told of his many experiences with boys at camp.

"THE WORD 'scouting' has been associated with the outdoors since the days of Daniel Boone," he said. "Boy Scouts have lost their purpose if they do not go on expeditions into the outdoors."

A demonstration of camping equipment was given by Jack Fox, Scout executive of the Central Ohio Council. Many items for camping that can be made by Scouts were shown and discussed by Fox.

Plans were discussed for an overnight camping trip to be held March 26 and 27 at Camp Lazarus. All persons interested should attend next week's meeting.

Two Accidents Add More Names To Pickaway County's 1955 List

Two accidents, one Thursday night and the other Friday morning, added several more names to an ever-growing injury list for Pickaway County.

At 7:55 p. m. Thursday, a car attempting to pass another struck the other car on Route 23 south of the city. The first car, apparently knocked out of control by the impact, skidded back across the highway and overturned.

Joseph C. Higgins, 27, of Lima, driver of the overturned car, suffered lacerations, abrasions and contusions. His passenger, Jane Dean, 32, of Springfield, received multiple abrasions about the head and face and suffered shock.

Both were treated and released from Berger Hospital. However, Higgins was cited into city court by State Patrolman Bob Greene and was fined $25 and costs for reckless driving.

DRIVER of the second car was not hurt. He is Emil Kurtz Jr., 26, of Circleville Route 1. The accident occurred 5.5 miles south of Circleville.

Patrolman Greene said that Kurtz, northbound, was preparing to make a left turn into his private drive. Higgins, also northbound, attempted to pass Kurtz but

Hatoyama Gets Nod As Jap Premier

TOKYO (AP)—Ichiro Hatoyama was reelected prime minister late tonight by the new Diet after a coalition of rival Conservatives and Socialists defeated his candidates for speaker and vice speaker of the powerful lower House.

Hatoyama's reelection never was in serious doubt, but former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's Conservative Liberal party teamed up with both right and left Socialists to make inroads on Hatoyama's control of the Diet.

Yoshida thus was repaying kind the coalition which Hatoyama's Democrats formed with the Socialists last fall when they toppled the Yoshida Cabinet.

After the surprising Liberal-Socialist coalition blocked installation of Hatoyama lieutenants in the key House positions, the Diet recessed, delaying a vote on prime minister.

It resumed after Liberal party officials said they would go down the line for Hatoyama, as they had pledged.

The depth of the split that developed over the speakers of the House still could not be determined.

World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has filed an early claim on the 1955 prize for clumsy handling. The way it handled, and then released, the Yalta papers was as clumsy as anything seen in Washington in at least a year.

Secretary of State Dulles juggled the papers as if they were on fire. He didn't seem to know what to do: make them public or keep them private? In the end they "leaked." Then he made them public.

A year ago the Army gave certain senators, confidentially, a report on its dealings with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.). One copy was "leaked" to a newspaper, presumably by one of the senators.

Whereupon another senator, hearing of this, decided to release the report to newspapers generally. Publication led to a flaming McCarthy-Army row and eventually to the McCarthy-Army hearings.

Nothing so sensational is expected from release of the Yalta papers, a two-volume account of the 1945 wartime conference between President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Generalissimo Stalin.

Churchill is irritated by the State Department's release of the papers. He gave grudging consent to their publication when pressed by the department. He said there are mistakes in this American version.

State Department officials have worked on gathering the 1945 wartime Yalta documents for almost 10 years, intensely in the last two. They were printed by the government printer in limited number.

For at least a month the department has had 125 sets of the 834-page volumes. Republicans, critical of Roosevelt's performance at Yalta, for years have demanded the papers be published.

Last Monday Henry Suydam, Dulles' press chief, said it was "inadvisable" to release the papers publicly because they involve national security and U.S. relations abroad.

He said Dulles had decided not to publish them but would make 24 copies available to Democratic and Republican leaders in House and Senate and to six congressional committees.

But Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, declined the honor. He didn't want to be named, he said, for any "leak" that might occur.

Dulles, after this rebuff, withdrew a bit. He said members of Congress could have the volumes if they wanted them. And on Tuesday at his news conference he said the papers would be made public someday—he didn't know when.

But that same day, Tuesday, one of Dulles' aides told a newsmag the volumes would be released to newspapers Thursday for publication in Friday morning papers.

But, just as in the McCarthy case, there was a "leak." It is not yet known who did the "leaking." The State Department doesn't seem to be investigating. But sometime between Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon several newspapers obtained copies. Dulles then let all the newspapers have them.

At a news conference, Brownell was asked if he was "happy about Matusow."

In reply, the attorney general read excerpts from Judge Thomason's finding that Matusow has taken part in a "scheme" to put the Justice Department on trial and "generally discredit" the testimony of undercover agents.

Brownell said: "I am very pleased to have a judicial ruling that brings credit on the people in the Department of Justice who handled this matter."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has filed an early claim on the 1953 prize for clumsy handling. The way it handled, and then released, the Yalta papers was as clumsy as anything seen in Washington in at least a year.

Secretary of State Dulles juggled the papers as if they were on fire. He didn't seem to know what to do: make them public or keep them private? In the end they "leaked." Then he made them public.

A year ago the Army gave certain senators, confidentially, a report on its dealings with Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.). One copy was "leaked" to a newspaper, presumably by one of the senators.

Whereupon another senator, hearing of this, decided to release the report to newspapers generally. Publication led to a flaming McCarthy-Army row and eventually to the McCarthy-Army hearings.

Nothing so sensational is expected from release of the Yalta papers, a two-volume account of the 1945 wartime conference between President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Generalissimo Stalin.

Churchill is irritated by the State Department's release of the papers. He gave grudging consent to their publication when pressed by the department. He said there are mistakes in this American version.

State Department officials have worked on gathering the 1945 wartime Yalta documents for almost 10 years, intensely in the last two. They were printed by the government printer in limited number.

For at least a month the department has had 125 sets of the 834-page volumes. Republicans, critical of Roosevelt's performance at Yalta, for years have demanded the papers be published.

Last Monday Henry Suydam, Dulles' press chief, said it was "inadvisable" to release the papers publicly because they involve national security and U.S. relations abroad.

He said Dulles had decided not to publish them but would make 24 copies available to Democratic and Republican leaders in House and Senate and to six congressional committees.

But Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, declined the honor. He didn't want to be named, he said, for any "leak" that might occur.

Dulles, after this rebuff, withdrew a bit. He said members of Congress could have the volumes if they wanted them. And on Tuesday at his news conference he said the papers would be made public someday—he didn't know when.

But that same day, Tuesday, one of Dulles' aides told a newsmen the volumes would be released to newspapers Thursday for publication in Friday morning papers.

But, just as in the McCarthy case, there was a "leak." It is not yet known who did the "leaking." The State Department doesn't seem to be investigating. But sometime between Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon several newspapers obtained copies. Dulles then let all the newspapers have them.

Mills Brother In Legal Squabble

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Don Mills, lead tenor of the Mills Brothers singing group, has been ordered to answer a lawyer's questions as to whether he is legally married.

Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes instructed him to appear at the office of Atty. Seymour M. Lazar April 1 for the questioning. The lawyer said Mrs. Jean Phillips Mills, of Hollywood, plans to file either a divorce suit or a suit for payment of services rendered against Mills. In an affidavit filed with the court Mrs. Mills said she joined Mills in 1952 as housekeeper and social secretary and in 1953 entered into a "valid marriage relationship" with him. She said that since then Mills has left her.

Brownell Lauds Federal Judge In Matusow Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell doffed his hat yesterday to Federal Judge R. E. Thomason, of El Paso, Tex., who sentenced turn about witness Harvey Matusow to three years for contempt of court.

At a news conference, Brownell was asked if he was "happy about Matusow."

In reply, the attorney general read excerpts from Judge Thomason's finding that Matusow had taken part in a "scheme" to put the Justice Department on trial and "generally discredit" the testimony of undercover agents.

Brownell said: "I am very pleased to have a judicial ruling that brings credit on the people in the Department of Justice who handled this matter."

Odd Bank Noises Bring Policemen

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Police raced to the City National Bank during the early morning hours and found strange noises coming from inside. Unable to find the night guard, Ralph Greenwood, they surrounded the building. There were no burglars though. Greenwood was trapped in a stuck elevator. He was pounding desperately on the walls for help.

Tax Bill Defeat Said Aid To Dems

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler says the Senate's defeat earlier this week of a Democratic-sponsored income tax cut will swing the 1956 elections to the Democrats.

"Responsibility for its defeat lies squarely on the shoulders of President Eisenhower and I'm confident he's given us the issue for 1956," he said in an interview.

Hal Boyle Says:Running On All Fours Urged

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to Dr. James A. Tobey, Newton, Conn.:

Dear Doc:
I just want to tell you how much my backache has improved since I took your hint to quit walking upright and start running around on all fours.

It has made such a change in my life you'd hardly recognize me as the same man.

For years my poor aching back had caused me intermittent trouble. But I could never track down the real reason for it.

Then, some weeks ago, I came across an article by you in "Today's Health," published by the American Medical Assn. You listed poor posture as among some 58 possible causes of backache.

"Standing erect may help distinguish man from the apes, but it certainly lets him in for a lot of trouble," you wrote. "The human skeleton is not particularly well adapted to this upright position, except possibly during that relatively brief time of youth when man is more or less lean, lithe and buoyant."

"For most of the rest of his life, this erect posture has made man prone to pains in the back and other ills which might not occur if he ran on all fours."

Was this the answer to my problem? I decided to go about on all fours for a month to find out.

The month is over. I am happy to report that not only has my backache largely disappeared, but my sinus is cured. My vision has improved so much I have thrown away my glasses. My appetite is fine and I have lost 15 pounds. I feel like a tiger, except at work.

Since most of your readers probably lack the courage to try to remedy a backache by going around on all fours, I'd like to give you a case history of what happened to me and the predicament I now find myself in.

First of all, I asked my wife if she had any objections to my making so drastic a change in my everyday posture. She said she'd have to see how I looked. I promptly got down on all fours. "Why you look much better that way," she said. "It hides your stomach."

The first few days I ran around on all fours only at home, or in my immediate neighborhood late at night. My back and arms hurt terribly, and everytime I tried to go faster than a dogtrot I fell on my face.

But as my muscles strengthened, my shape thinned down, and the callouses thickened on my palms and fingertips, I found I could gallop around the block without getting tired.

For some reason the dogs I met in these early nocturnal training ramblings resented my four-limbed posture. I had fights with a police dog, a dachshund, two fox terriers and a French poodle. Oddly enough, the poodle put up the best scrap. I had one devil of a time proving to him I was the better man.

For comfortable going about on all fours I find the best costume is loose-fitting slacks, a sweater, open shirt, tennis shoes for traction, and a cap—my hat kept falling off and showing my bald spot.

The first time I climbed into the bus on all fours to go to work I felt a mite self-conscious. I was afraid of being stared at. But after a startled first glance the other passengers made room for me to read my newspaper on the floor, and paid me no more heed. You have to do more than get down on all fours to attract attention in Manhattan.

The same thing is true at cocktail parties. My new posture ac-

Mrs. FDR 'Sure' Husband Would Have Kept Secret

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that she was "sure" the U.S. record of the Yalta conference would not have been published if her husband had been alive.

The wartime President's widow arrived here by air today for a nine-day visit to children's institutions in Israel. Asked for comment on the state department disclosures Wednesday night, she replied:

"My husband talked with Churchill about a great many things and it is possibly true he suggested that Hong Kong — a great international port — be handed over to China. But I wasn't there and I don't know."

"If my husband were alive, I am sure it would not have been published."

tually has reduced my social drinking. For when I lope up on three limbs to my host, holding up my glass for a nip for the road, he looks down as if seeing me for the first time, and says, "Really, old fellow, don't you think you've had enough?"

My only trouble, doc, is at the office. My boss says that for policy reasons he can't allow me to do my work on all fours, the only way I now feel comfortable. He says that if I don't work sitting up at my desk like everybody else, backache or no backache, I'll be fired.

But, doc, those eight hours at a desk are sheer torture. Once you learn the carefree pleasure of going about on all fours you can never be happy again even in a semiupright position.

Once you get the habit of traveling on all fours you find it harder to give up than smoking. The other night, coming home on all fours as usual, I saw a golden full moon rise, and felt a sudden intoxicating desire to lift up my head and bay at it. Is that natural Doc?

But what can I do about this doghouse I find myself in at the office? I'd like to quit my job, and I would, too—if I knew of any way I could earn a respectable living on all fours.

It isn't my posture that gives me backaches now, Doc. It's the rule-bound posture of civilization; and it causes most of our headaches as well as backaches. How are we going to cure people of civilization, Doc?

Hopefully yours,
Hal Boyle.

Hal Boyle Says:

Running On All Fours Urged

NEW YORK (AP)—An open letter to Dr. James A. Tobey, Newton, Conn.:

Dear Doc:

I just want to tell you how much my backache has improved since I took your hint to quit walking upright and start running around on all fours.

It has made such a change in my life you'd hardly recognize me as the same man.

For years my poor aching back had caused me intermittent trouble. But I could never track down the real reason for it.

Then, some weeks ago, I came across an article by you in "Today's Health," published by the American Medical Assn. You listed poor posture as among some 58 possible causes of backache.

"Standing erect may help distinguish man from the apes, but it certainly lets him in for a lot of trouble," you wrote. "The human skeleton is not particularly well adapted to this upright position, except possibly during that relatively brief time of youth when man is more or less lean, lithe and buoyant."

"For most of the rest of his life, this erect posture has made man prone to pains in the back and other ills which might not occur if he ran on all fours."

Was this the answer to my problem? I decided to go about on all fours for a month to find out.

The month is over. I am happy to report that not only has my backache largely disappeared, but my sinus is cured. My vision has improved so much I have thrown away my glasses. My appetite is fine and I have lost 15 pounds. I feel like a tiger, except at work.

Since most of your readers probably lack the courage to try to remedy a backache by going around on all fours, I'd like to give you a case history of what happened to me and the predicament I now find myself in.

First of all, I asked my wife if she had any objections to my making so drastic a change in my everyday posture. She said she'd have to see how I looked. I promptly got down on all fours. "Why you look much better that way," she said. "It hides your stomach."

The first few days I ran around on all fours only at home, or in my immediate neighborhood late at night. My back and arms hurt terribly, and everytime I tried to go faster than a dogtrot I fell on my face.

But as my muscles strengthened, my shape thinned down, and the callouses thickened on my palms and fingertips, I found I could gallop around the block without getting tired.

For some reason the dogs I met in these early nocturnal training ramblings resented my four-limbed posture. I had fights with a police dog, a dachshund, two fox terriers and a French poodle. Oddly enough, the poodle put up the best scrap. I had one devil of a time proving to him I was the better man.

For comfortable going about on all fours I find the best costume is loose-fitting slacks, a sweater, open shirt, tennis shoes for traction, and a cap—my hat kept falling off and showing my bald spot.

The first time I climbed into the bus on all fours to go to work I felt a mite self-conscious. I was afraid of being stared at. But after a startled first glance the other passengers made room for me to read my newspaper on the floor, and paid me no more heed. You have to do more than get down on all fours to attract attention in Manhattan.

The same thing is true at cocktail parties. My new posture actually has reduced my social drinking. For when I lope up on three limbs to my host, holding up my glass for a nip for the road, he looks down as if seeing me for the first time, and says, "Really, old fellow, don't you think you've had enough?"

My only trouble, doc, is at the office. My boss says that for policy reasons he can't allow me to do my work on all fours, the only way I now feel comfortable. He says that if I don't work sitting up at my desk like everybody else, backache or no backache, I'll be fired.

But, doc, those eight hours at a desk are sheer torture. Once you learn the carefree pleasure of going about on all fours you can never be happy again even in a semiupright position.

Once you get the habit of traveling on all fours you find it harder to give up than smoking. The other night, coming home on all fours as usual, I saw a golden full moon rise, and felt a sudden intoxicating desire to lift up my head and bay at it. Is that natural Doc?

But what can I do about this doghouse I find myself in at the office? I'd like to quit my job, and I would, too—if I knew of any way I could earn a respectable living on all fours.

It isn't my posture that gives me backaches now, Doc. It's the rule-bound posture of civilization; and it causes most of our headaches as well as backaches. How are we going to cure people of civilization, Doc?

Hopefully yours,
Hal Boyle.

Mrs. FDR 'Sure' Husband Would Have Kept Secret

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today that she was "sure" the U.S. record of the Yalta conference would not have been published if her husband had been alive.

The wartime President's widow arrived here by air today for a nine-day visit to children's institutions in Israel. Asked for comment on the state department disclosures Wednesday night, she replied:

"My husband talked with Churchill about a great many things and it is possibly true he suggested that Hong Kong — a great international port — be handed over to China. But wasn't there and I don't know."

"If my husband were alive, I am sure it would not have been published."

Huge Sunday School Confab Set For July In Cleveland

CLEVELAND—The task of preparing the nation's Protestant Sunday School population (more than 30 million from 37 denominations) for responsible living as adult Christians in the next generation will be the chief underlying concern of a great religious gathering here this summer.

The 23rd International Sunday School Convention, designed to provide information and inspiration to volunteer church workers, will be held here July 27-31. Preparations for the meeting—probably the year's greatest in terms of attendance—are already far advanced among the sponsoring groups, the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and the Canadian Council of Churches through their departments of Christian Education.

To this convention are expected to come the men and women who teach children the importance of religion in their lives. Others will be directors of church school programs or leaders of weekday activities in the Sunday Schools of the two countries.

Ten thousand of these volunteer workers will be on hand, exceeding the number at the 1947 convention, held in Des Moines, Ia., declared Bishop Reuben H. Mueller, Indianapolis, of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. Bishop Mueller is chairman of the convention.

"Advance registrations already in from 38 states and several Canadian provinces indicate the impact on the whole Sunday School movement which will be engendered through the inspiration of such a great number united to make the Gospel a reality," Bishop Mueller said.

The church leader pointed out that since 1947 great changes have come upon America, changes that have deeply affected the churches. Skyrocketing births are pouring great numbers of children into unprepared and inadequately staffed church schools. Larger numbers of adults are also complicating church school programs. Moreover, juvenile delinquency is tending to keep the churches and their schools in the national spotlight, he said.

To adapt to today's conditions, new techniques and media such as film strips, tape recorders, and television are being used by more and more churches. To learn about these new things, to explore better ways of handling their Sunday School charges, the church workers will meet on the theme, "Home and Church—Teach Christ Now."

Between the opening session remarks by foreign operations administrator Harold E. Stassen, president of the convention, and the concluding address by evangelist Charles B. Templeton, the Christian educators will hear five other major addresses, three times a day 89 "interest group" meetings, take part in worship services, and examine hundreds of church school materials and equipment in booths in the main exhibit hall.

"Around the World in Christian Education" speakers will be Lord Mackintosh of Halifax; J. Arthur Rank, British movie magnate; Dr. G. Baez-Camargo of Mexico; and representatives of Asia and Africa. The convention will commemorate the 175th anniversary of the first Sunday School founded by Robert Raikes in Gloucester, England, in 1780.

Other principal speakers will be Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, minister of Christ Methodist Church, New York City; Dr. E. Epling Reinartz, New York, secretary of the United Lutheran Church; Dr. Paul Calvin Payne, Philadelphia, general secretary of the Presbyterian Church USA and chairman of the National Council of Churches' Division of Christian Education; Dr. Gerald E. Knoff, executive secretary of the division; and Mrs. James D. Wyker, Mt. Vernon, chairman of the National Council's General Department of United Church Women.

Among the "interest groups" which the expected 10,000 conventionnaires can select are a score each in children's and youth work, such as "Beginning Kindergarten Teachers" and "Adult's Working With College Youth;" a dozen in such adult groups as "Leaders of Parents Classes;" 15 in admin-

Girl's Dying Wish To See Dad Granted

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Seven-year-old Doris LeGardye's dying wish to see her father was fulfilled.

Responding to her appeal, Municipal Judge Leo G. Marcollo, of Richmond, suspended the remainder of Corlie C. LeGardye's 30-day jail sentence for drunkenness and sent him to the hospital. LeGardye, 32, a stevedore, reached Doris' bedside seven hours before she died of leukemia Wednesday night. Soon after he arrived, she had roused from a coma and recognized him.

Ban On 'Bureau' Dropped By Solon

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Assemblyman William F. Marsh, North Hollywood Democrat, has ditched his bill to forbid use of the word bureau as a name by any agency or organization outside government. He said he had heard, among others, from the California Farm Bureau Federation and the Sacramento Better Business Bureau.

Administrative sections like "Church School Superintendents;" and others in missionary and weekday religious education and specialized groups such as "Using Radio and TV" and "Religion and Public Education."

Thirty-seven American and Canadian Protestant communions will participate and many plan denominational meetings in conjunction with the convention.

'Criminal Type' Ruled Out By Professor After Study

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—There's no such thing as a "criminal type," says Wittenberg College sociologist Dr. F. James Schrag. That term, "criminal type," he says, is "banded about considerably in this modern day and age—particularly on the stage and in story-books—but it really means nothing."

The professor teaches a course in criminology at the college, and heads the department of sociology.

He says at one time a man with a sloping forehead, high cheek bones and a pointed nose in some circles would have been cast immediately in the role of a criminal doomed to a life of crime.

Fortunately, Dr. Schrag says, modern criminologists have eliminated "criminal type" from their vocabularies.

He explains that typing of the criminal came about largely from generalized studies of groups of criminals, but today studies show the criminal can be lean, fat, short, long—or even a midget.

This business about sloping foreheads, he says, and pointed noses and high cheek bones was at one time considered the criterion for determining the nebulous "criminal type."

If these characteristics can account for criminals, how do we account for "Baby Face" Nelson or handsome John Dillinger, Dr. Schrag asks. They certainly had none of those features, he says.

The sociologist says the bad thing about assuming that all criminals were types is that "too often, the man who committed a crime was passed off as a total loss to society simply because he had been cast as the criminal type."

and therefore as a hopeless and useless member of society." He says today the trend in criminology is toward the case studies of those who have committed crimes and attempts to rehabilitate criminals so they can become useful members of society.

Second Twin Born Long After First

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—On Jan.

28 one twin was born to Mrs. Bernard Schnees, 35, yesterday—48 days later—the other was born. Dr. James Parker said the first infant, a girl delivered prematurely by Caesarian section, resulted from normal pregnancy within the uterus. The second, a boy, was from pregnancy outside the uterus, one of less than 200 known cases. The first child, still at Jane M. Case Hospital, now weighs 5 pounds 12 ounces. The other weighed 5 pounds 4 ounces at birth.

Sales Tax Data Shows Strong Trade Gains

With Pickaway County's figures following the trend, statewide collections in sales tax receipts showed an increase of nearly 50 percent for the week ended March 5, when compared with the corresponding week last year.

Statewide collections for the week this year were $3,804,206, State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy reported today. The sales tax receipts are widely regarded as an accurate barometer of current business tendencies.

For the week ended March 5 this year, Pickaway County receipts totaled $7,881.07. The total for the corresponding week last year was $5,479.03.

The latest report on statewide collections is the largest amount of weekly sales tax collections registered in the calendar year to date, and reflects gains in all eight industry classification totals.

AN ANALYSIS of the increases, compared to 1952, in the various industry categories, revealed substantial gains of 34.941, or 20.3 per cent in food; $49,620, or 50.5 per cent in apparel; $192,821, or 78.8 per cent in department and general stores; $607,925, or 77.6 per cent in automotive; $77,858, or 36.5 per cent in furniture, $115,602, or 39 per cent in building; $152,316, or 37.3 per cent for chain stores; and $47,584, or 10.4 per cent for the miscellaneous group.

Tax collections from motor vehicle sales contributed $1,235,731 to the automotive group total. This is a record increase of $560,073, or 82.8 per cent over last year's collections for the same week in this sub-classification.

State Treasurer Tracy's summary shows that on March 5, 1953, cumulative grand total collections of $133,579,380 exceeded the grand total collections of $133,190,803, registered March 6, 1952, by $388,577, or .29 of one per cent.

This is the first time in the current fiscal year, which began July 1, 1952, that the over-all grand total collections have been ahead of fiscal 1952-1953.

WANT TO SERVE

THE NEW Air Force Academy, which opens next July at its temporary headquarters at Lowry Base in Denver, has been oversubscribed, to put it mildly. Officials report that 6,358 nominations have been received to fill the 300 available billets, which boils down to about 21 men for every opening. The Air Force has a tremendous winning job to do before the academy's inaugural reveille.

Each Congressman was entitled to nominate ten candidates and the final figures show that few failed to fill their quotas. Nominations were also made by the White House and the vice president. The Army and Air Force put in a good word for some 564 young men within their respective charge.

Obviously with so auspicious an historic occasion in the offing as the opening of the nation's third great service institution, everyone wanted to get into the act. Few institutions in American life enjoy the nation's merited respect as do the existing academies at West Point and Annapolis. The Air Force Academy, to be located permanently at Colorado Springs, follows in that great tradition.

The profusion of American youth seeking admittance to the first class is a testimonial both to that tradition and to the strength and loyalty of the nation's young men.

COOKED GOOSE

WORD FROM MOSCOW is that they are getting set to cook Malenkov's goose. A stormy article appearing in Pravda, official communist newspaper, accuses the recently deposed Premier of serious ideological heresy in presuming to suggest that atomic war could destroy all civilization, Russia included.

The Soviet vogue has been always to warn that a new world war would lead only to the destruction of "imperialism." The idea that Soviet society would also go down the drain is found abhorrent. If it hadn't been this pretext, the surviving Soviet leadership would have found another with which to hang hapless Georgi.

Never in the regime's 37 years of blood-stained existence has a lameduck been tolerated—and it isn't out of the compassion which holds mercy-death preferable to being a "has been" for life. For a moment it looked as if Malenkov had been shunted aside to the ministry of electric power stations in recognition of his having taken the rap for the failure of others. But that moment now appears to be shortlived.

Indications are that a big purge trial will be held to put Malenkov in the pot with all the ideological trimmings. In Moscow the show must go on. And when the final curtain rings down there is always at least one less player.

Baseball season is only a month off, and according to forecasts every pitcher will win 20 games, and no player will bat less than .300.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

The dramatic personality of Walter Winchell has high-lighted an investigation into the stock Exchange operations which otherwise has been very dull. The question is, when is a tip a tip?

Trading in stocks or bonds or anything else is part of the capitalist process of using surplus capital at risk with the object of a profit. The law of supply and demand plays a role in this process, but risk-taking often involves a factor of gambling, sometimes called speculation.

Let us say that I am in a restaurant and I hear three men converse, as I recently did, using more decibels than they imagined. It was not eavesdropping; actually they forced their private conversation upon me and upon all the others in their vicinity. I thus heard of a very important prospective transaction. I had a tip. In a word, if what these men said to each other was correct, a very sizable fortune could be earned by an investment. If the deal fell through, I doubt whether there would be any loss at all, or at most, a small loss.

Now the question arises, should I give the tip to someone who can afford the risk, or being in the business of telling the public what comes to me, should I shout it from the housetop? This is an ethical question which different men approach from different points of view. Some believe that the responsibility is to make known what is available. Others hold to the doctrine that unless one can guarantee against loss, one should not advise in such matters. Still others feel that no one is required to accept a tip and therefore the tipster is obliged.

Winchell's contention, I believe, is that he provides advance news and not tips; that no one is required to go into the market.

The recent rise in the stock market may be due to many causes:

1. A flight from the dollar. This is often called a hedge against inflation. Undoubtedly whenever any form of inflation appears, those who have surplus capital prefer to see it in the form of equities rather than in currency or government bonds which are the same as currency. Buying shares in a company is purchasing ownership, but in most instances the buyer is only interested in equities as investments or as speculation. He transfers his responsibilities of ownership to management. Such owners of stock make a market in the stock itself as though it were a commodity, when actually it is a certificate of partial ownership.

2. John J. McCloy, Chairman of the Chase National Bank, has testified before the Fulbright Committee that the stock market's current activities cannot be attributed to unusual purchases by trust funds, both personal and pension. He said that these funds amounted to "only a small fraction of the value of stock traded on the Exchange."

McCloy should be well-informed on this subject because of his connection with the Chase bank, but it is known that some Foundations, which formerly invested most of their funds in bonds, moved to stocks as a hedge against inflation. Furthermore, labor unions are not only investing pension funds but the ordinary surpluses in their treasuries in common stock, often in the companies of their industry. Such investments are generally held as long-term investments. They therefore produce a shortage of stock available for trading and the price goes up.

Fever Blister Benefits

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

ARE you bothered with fever blisters? Well, believe it or not, it may be a lucky thing if you are!

These annoying watery blisters, which doctors call herpes simplex, frequently accompany winter illnesses.

Usually they break out on the face, especially around the mouth. However, any part of your skin might be attacked.

Age No Protection

Fever blisters may occur during the course of virtually any fever, or even independently of any other infection. Your age is no protection against herpes simplex, because it can occur in children as well as in elderly persons.

The trouble is caused by a virus which easily passes through your body's filter system. There's a tendency for these blisters to return frequently, at regular intervals and usually in the same place.

Compensation for Blisters

Unpleasant and troublesome though these blisters are, they do have a compensating feature. Recent studies by the United States Army and other medical groups have shown that persons prone to fever blisters have a continuously renewed supply of antibodies against the virus. While these antibodies are not sufficient to prevent the blisters, they do prevent the virus from causing other damage.

If you don't get blisters, the virus is more likely to attack your nervous system, and this can cause a rare but serious form of encephalitis.

As for the blisters themselves, they usually dry up in four or five days, leaving a crust which falls off in another few days.

If treatment is begun early, spirits of camphor will usually help. Paint it on the blisters three or four times a day, if your doctor so advises.

If the condition is more advanced, he may suggest other protective and mildly antiseptic applications.

X-ray treatment, in two or three small doses, might be helpful in small attacks.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

N. B.: What can be done for low blood pressure? How can it be raised?

Answer: Low blood pressure may be due to weakness of the heart, disturbances in the blood vessels which follow some infection such as typhoid fever, and general nervous weakness.

It is also found in some cases of hardening of the arteries, in anemia and in disturbances of the glands of internal secretion. The treatment depends entirely upon the cause.

If the heart is affected, steps must be taken to build up the strength of the heart by means of sufficient rest and sleep, fresh air, sunshine and the use of a well-balanced diet. Exercise must be carefully regulated.

If low blood pressure is due to some condition other than heart trouble, building up the health and strength by means of plenty of rest, sleep, fresh air, sunshine, moderate exercise in the outdoors, and the proper diet are helpful.

Two Scotchmen were walking down a lane near Aberdeen (where else?) when one stopped and said, "Jock, there's something jingling in your pocket. Don't tell me it's money." "I couldn't tell you that," admitted Jock, "because it wouldna' be true. The jingling is the wife's teeth. There's too much eatin' goin' on in my house 'tween meals."

"One day a lion caught me unawares without my gun," admitted an intrepid explorer, "but I just sat stock still and outstared him. The beast didn't so much as touch me."

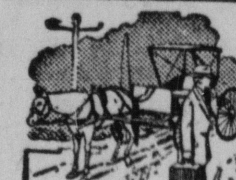

"Incredible!" marvelled his dinner partner. "How do you explain that?"

"One reason," amused the explorer, "may have been that I was sitting on the highest branch of a very tall tree."

Milk is usually whiter in winter than in summer because cows do not have growing plants to eat from which coloring matter is transmitted to the milk.

Carpets are not harmed by radiant floor heating. Temperatures of the heating system cannot rise high enough to cause damage or danger.

The Persian cat which originated in what is modern Iran has become relatively scarce in that country.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX

LABADIE was a cluster of about fifteen houses, some of them log cabins, at the Valley end of the pass which led the highway through the mountains. The road to Labadie was breath-takingly beautiful. In three years, Fred had not lost his ability to enjoy it fully as much as the transcontinental tourists did. Approaching the pass, the grandeur of the mountains still amazed him. Turning homeward, he dropped down into the Valley, with the town stretched out like the welcoming palm of a friendly hand, the river, the ranches—Fred loved both vistas in a personal, physical way. He would never again be wholly content away from the mountains.

Katie—Katie said she liked it, too. But did she? He had, he knew, adjusted much more quickly than she had to the new environment. He took as a matter of course his need to keep chains, a blanket, an axe and a can of beans in the back of the station wagon should some trip to a distant ranch maroon him in deep snow, or on the wrong side of a flash flood. The sight of those precautions still brought a worried frown to Katie's pretty face. . . .

She was a good wife. She was, like Huggins, firm about making him send out his bills; she had grown used to emergencies cropping up at all hours, compelled herself cheerfully to accept the collapse of her own plans. But she had not yet reconciled herself to the fact that Fred's time was never his own, that she must see her husband at unpredictable intervals, take even his love at such times as his work permitted.

Poor Katie. He loved her so dearly, and wanted to do the right thing by her; he wanted to make his young wife happy. If he were any sort of husband, his first thought should be, not for himself, but for her.

Fred asked directions at the filling station, found his way to a white-painted house, went upon the narrow porch and knocked upon the front door. A hard-faced woman of forty answered, and stepped back for him to enter. Two other women were in the front room, and a man lay slumped like a bag of old clothes upon the worn carpet.

news behind the news

WASHINGTON — Sen. J. William Fulbright's "friendly" study of Wall Street has been boycotted fellow-members of the Senate Banking and Currency Subcommittee. The serious-minded Rhodes scholar from Arkansas does not have even a Morgan midjet to keep him company in the ornate committee chamber.

The Democrats are admittedly afraid of the politico-economic repercussions from this investigation of the advance of stock market prices to new peaks. The wisecrack that the "professor," as he is called in the cloakrooms, "has a bull by the tail." Even Fulbright's counsel, Robert Wallace, concedes ruefully that "We are walking on eggs."

EFFECTS—With the 1956 elections likely to be determined by economic conditions at that time, Fulbright's colleagues think that his survey may be damaging to the Democrats, if properly propagandized by GOP publicists.

Fulbright himself seems to share this fear with his over-emphasis of the friendly and sympathetic nature of his

"study," and by disclaiming any desire to expose or smear the "moneyed interests," the wealthy members of "well-stocked clubs" or the "economic royalists," to recall a few choice Roosevelt-Truman political epithets.

ANALYSIS—Here is Capitol Hill's private analysis of the possible effect of the Arkansasian's single-handed venture, which also explains why his associates permit him to go it alone:

If the market falls steeply and abruptly, and experts believe that a decline from current heights is inevitable, the Administration will contend that the Democrat's investigation was responsible for billions of losses to investors, large and small. There may be no economic truth in this allegation, but it will be difficult to prove or disprove it in the heat of the 1956 presidential campaign.

REPORT—On the other hand, should Fulbright report that current stock market values are soundly based, his conclusion could have two major effects. Both would be damaging to the Democrats, in the opinion of party experts.

Fulbright's clean health judgment would be seized upon by the GOP as an endorsement of Eisenhower policies. They would maintain that it was confidence in his moderate conservatism and businesslike advisers which led to a steady flow of money into Wall Street.

Keith Funston, head of the Exchange, refused to credit Eisenhower for the continuing confidence, but the implications of his testimony and that of other witnesses are obvious. The bull market began after Ike's inauguration, and despite cuts in military and foreign aid expenditures, which boosted the value of blue chip, defense securities.

QUANDARY—A pro-Wall Street decision by Fulbright might set off an even more spectacular wave of buying, sending market values higher than present levels. The inevitable shake-out or decline would then mean severe losses to those who took a ride on the basis of his findings.

In other respects, the Wall Street investigation has placed Democratic political economists in a quandary, especially Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois and Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, inveterate foes of the Treasury and Federal Reserve System when they are managed by Republicans.

Both attribute the current bull market to the easy-money policies pursued by Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey. But when he switched to a "hard money" program in early 1953 in order to check inflation, they were the first to howl that it was dangerously deflationary, and a squeeze on small borrowers.

They have also charged that the Federal Reserve Board's 1953 cut of margin requirements to one-third was intended to stage a market boom in order for its effect on the 1954 elections. But the Reserve Board was controlled by Democrats, including the chairman, during the birth and early growth of the Wall Street bull.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SIX
LABADIE was a cluster of about fifteen houses, some of them log cabins, at the Valley end of the pass which led the highway through the mountains. The road to Labadie was breath-takingly beautiful. In three years, Fred had not lost his ability to enjoy it fully as much as the transcontinental tourists did. Approaching the pass, the grandeur of the mountains still awed him. Turning homeward, the drop down into the Valley, with the town stretched out like the welcoming palm of a friendly hand, the river, the ranches—Fred loved both vistas in a personal, physical way. He would never again be wholly content away from the mountains.
Katie—Katie said she liked it, too. But did she? He had, he knew, adjusted much more quickly than she had to the new environment. He took as a matter of course his need to keep chains, a blanket, an axe and a can of beans in the back of the station wagon should some trip to a distant ranch maroon him in deep snow, or on the wrong side of a flash flood. The sight of those precautions still brought a worried frown to Katie's pretty face. . . .
She was a good wife. She was, like Huggins, firm about making him send out his bills; she had grown used to emergencies cropping up at all hours, compelled herself cheerfully to accept the collapse of her own plans. But she had not yet reconciled herself to the fact that Fred's time was never his own, that she must see her husband at unpredictable intervals, take even his love at such times as his work permitted.
Poor Katie. He loved her so dearly, and wanted to do the right thing by her. He wanted to make his young wife happy. If he were any sort of husband, his first thought should be, not for himself, but for her.
Fred asked directions at the filling station, found his way to a white-painted house, went upon the narrow porch and knocked upon the front door. A hard-faced woman of forty answered, and stepped back for him to enter. Two other women were in the front room, and a man lay slumped like a bag of old clothes upon the worn carpet.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
news behind the news
WASHINGTON — Sen. J. William Fulbright's "friendly" study of Wall Street has been boycotted fellow-members of the Senate Banking and Currency Subcommittee. The serious-minded Rhodes scholar from Arkansas does not have even a Morgan midjet to keep him company in the ornate committee chamber.
The Democrats are admittedly afraid of the politico-economic repercussions from this investigation of the advance of stock market prices to new peaks. The wisecrack that the "professor," as he is called in the cloakrooms, "has a bull by the tail." Even Fulbright's counsel, Robert Wallace, concedes ruefully that "We are walking on eggs."
EFFECTS—With the 1956 elections likely to be determined by economic conditions at that time, Fulbright's colleagues think that his survey may be damaging to the Democrats, if properly propagandized by GOP publicists.
Fulbright himself seems to share this fear with his over-emphasis of the friendly and sympathetic nature of his "study," and by disclaiming any desire to expose or smear the "moneyed interests," the wealthy members of "well-stocked clubs" or the "economic royalists," to recall a few choice Roosevelt-Truman political epithets.
ANALYSIS — Here is Capitol Hill's private analysis of the possible effect of the Arkansas single-handed venture, which also explains why his associates permit him to go it alone:
If the market falls steeply and abruptly, and experts believe that a decline from current heights is inevitable, the Administration will contend that the Democrat's investigation was responsible for billions of losses to investors, large and small. There may be no economic truth in this allegation, but it will be difficult to prove or disprove it in the heat of the 1956 presidential campaign.
REPORT—On the other hand, should Fulbright report that current stock market values are soundly based, his conclusion could have two major effects. Both would be damaging to the Democrats, in the opinion of party experts.
Fulbright's clean health judgment would be seized upon by the GOP as an endorsement of Eisenhower policies. They would maintain that it was confidence in his moderate conservatism and businesslike advisers which led to a steady flow of money into Wall Street.
Keith Funston, head of the Exchange, refused to credit Eisenhower with the continuing confidence, but the implications of his testimony and that of other witnesses are obvious. The bull market began after Ike's inauguration, and despite cuts in military and foreign aid expenditures, which boosted the value of blue chip, defense securities.
QUANDARY — A pro-Wall Street decision by Fulbright might set off an even more spectacular wave of buying, sending market values higher than present levels. The inevitable shake-out or decline would then mean severe losses to those who took a ride on the basis of his findings.
In other respects, the Wall Street investigation has placed Democratic political economists in a quandary, especially Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois and Rep. Wright Patman of Texas, inveterate foes of the Treasury and Federal Reserve System when they are managed by Republicans.
Both attribute the current bull market to the easy-money policies pursued by Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey. But when he switched to a "hard money" program in early 1953 in order to check inflation, they were the first to howl that it was dangerously deflationary, and a squeeze on small borrowers.
They have also charged that the Federal Reserve Board's 1953 cut of margin requirements to one-third was intended to stage a market boom in order for its effect on the 1954 elections. But the Reserve Board was controlled by Democrats, including the chairman, during the birth and early growth of the Wall Street bull.

"One day a lion caught me unawares without my gun," admitted an intrepid explorer, "but I just sat stock still and outstared him. The beast didn't do much as touch me."
"Incredible!" marvelled his dinner partner. "How do you explain that?"
"One reason," amused the explorer, "may have been that I was sitting on the highest branch of a very tall tree."

Mama's Cooking Is Featured At Thursday Food Institute

Record Attendance Set At Sessions

The family album was brought into the limelight during Thursday evening's closing sessions of the Gasco-Herald Food Institute.

Memorial Hall was filled to overflowing for the final show, which brought the attendance for the three night performance to a total of over 3000 spectators.

Setting a new high record for Circleville Food Institutes, the enthusiastic audience watched Miss Mildred Dunn, Jay Parker and Miss Sarah Gallagher, the Gas Company's Betty Newton, prepare streamlined versions of Mama's cooking.

Miss Dunn started the evening's festivities with Oven Fried Chicken, Carrie Hill's Banana Bread and Baked Beans, perfect picnic fare easily prepared by the new modern methods.

Six pies, all worthy of Mama's prize recipes, were prepared and baked in the huge oven of one of the modern gas stoves on display on the stage.

Apple Pie, Apricot Pie, and Pineapple Paraline Pie, all streamlined to fit the time and budgets of present-day cooks, were followed by Raisin Nut Pie, Chess Pie, and Kentucky Buttermilk Pie.

Miss Dunn suggested a skillet meal of Stuffed Green Peppers to precede a heavy dessert. A Quick Vegetable Soup was prepared in 15 minutes and Broiled Fish Puff took only a little more time.

Broiled Ham and Swiss Cheese Sandwiches also were prepared in record time, and a streamlined version of Mama's Fried Mince Pies used prepared canned biscuits.

Mom's Coffee Cake, which took her overnight to prepare, was made with packaged roll mix, whipping cream, sugar and cinnamon in a very short time. Highlight of all festivities is a delectable cake, and the cooking school lecturers proved themselves equal to the occasion with a St. Patrick's Day version of a Gay Ribbon Loaf. Angel food cake was filled with layers of ice cream, sprinkled with green shredded coconut and then chilled.

Miss Dunn demonstrated the many appliances on display by local merchants, including a refrigerator with a new icemaker, an air conditioning system, hot water tank and incinerator.

Emphasizing the clean cooking of gas during the program, she wiped the bottom of a skillet, straight from the flame, on her white formal.

James W. Cole and Shauna Marie Humphrey again selected names of guests who were presented gifts from the participating merchants.

Mrs. R. Dale Frueling of 963 S. Pickaway St. was presented with a Sunray Automatic Gas Range as a special gift on the program. Mrs. Frueling, mother of two sons, is the wife of the pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

The yellow trim on the range will blend perfectly with her kitchen, which is predominantly yellow. Mrs. Frueling stated that she was thrilled with her gift, especially since her present stove has seen long, hard service. She was intrigued by the many modern conveniences of the stove.

Christine Hagen of 218 Walnut St. was awarded a 52-piece set of silverplate.

Jean Schiff of Ashville Route 2 was recipient of an electric mixer.

Mrs. Lester George of Ashville Route 2 received a certificate for linoleum tile to re-do a room.

Grocery baskets were awarded too: Eleanor Huff of Stoutsville Route 1; Mrs. Lloyd Shaw of Williamsport Route 2; Mrs. Roy Huff of 426 N. Court St.; Frank Rockwell, Circleville Route 1; Mrs. Ruth Steinhauser, Clarksville Route 1; Mrs. Agnes Reigel, Ashville; Mrs. Albert Waits, 216 N. Circleville St.; and Mrs. Austin Greene, Circleville Route 2.

Child Culture League Hears Dr. Faust At Guest Meeting

Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broad Street Christian church of Columbus, was guest speaker at a husbands and guests night meeting of the Child Culture League.

The event was held in the social rooms of the Presbyterian church with Mrs. Clark Martin, club president in charge.

Dr. Faust, a noted lecturer and after dinner speaker, used as his subject, "Are You Fit To Be Tied?" His address stressed the fact that churches and schools are the basic pillars of our society and that without them our nation would soon fall.

The speaker noted that love and discipline properly mingled are the upmost importance in the early life of children. He also stated that lonely children are most often the juvenile delinquents.

Dr. Faust related several humorous anecdotes which also had a sober lesson regarding the early life of a child.

Mrs. Martin gave a history and listed the purposes of the club. She also appointed a nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers for the coming year.

Announcement was made of a Spring conference of the Child Conservation League of Ohio to be held April 12 at Otterbein College, Westerville.

Guests in addition to the husbands of the members included:

Mrs. Charles Hurr of Washington C. H., president of the South Central District of the Child Conservation League; Dr. Faust, guest speaker, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gustin, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hettinger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swingly, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Zwyer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gladden Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moffit and Miss Emma Louise Matz.

Mrs. John Woods and Mrs. Thomas Harden served as co-chairmen of a refreshment committee. They were assisted by Mrs. James Morrison, Mrs. Gerald Ayers, Mrs. Marion Good and Mrs. James Trimmer.

Mama's Cooking Is Featured At Thursday Food Institute

Record Attendance Set At Sessions

The family album was brought into the limelight during Thursday evening's closing sessions of the Gasco-Herald Food Institute.

Memorial Hall was filled to overflowing for the final show, which brought the attendance for the three night performance to a total of over 3000 spectators.

Setting a new high record for Circleville Food Institutes, the enthusiastic audience watched Miss Mildred Dunn, Jay Parker and Miss Sarah Gallagher, the G. A. S. Company's Betty Newton, prepare streamlined versions of Mama's cooking.

Miss Dunn started the evening's festivities with Oven Fried Chicken, Carrie Hill's Banana Bread and Baked Beans, perfect picnic fare easily prepared by the new modern methods.

Six pies, all worthy of Mama's prize recipes, were prepared and served in the huge oven of one of the modern gas stoves on display on the stage.

Apple Pie, Apricot Pie, and Pineapple Paraline Pie, all streamlined to fit the time and budgets of present-day cooks, were followed by Raisin Nut Pie, Chess Pie, and Kentucky Butter Milk Pie.

Miss Dunn suggested a skillet meal of Stuffed Green Peppers to precede a heavy dessert. A Quick Vegetable Soup was prepared in 15 minutes and Broiled Fish Puff took only a little more time.

Broiled Ham and Swiss Cheese Sandwiches also were prepared in record time, and a streamlined version of Mama's Fried Mince Pies used prepared canned biscuits.

Mom's Coffee Cake, which took her overnight to prepare, was made with packaged roll mix, whipping cream, sugar and cinnamon in a very short time. Highlight of all festivities is a delectable cake, and the cooking school lecturers proved themselves equal to the occasion with a Gay Ribbon Loaf. Angel food cake was filled with layers of ice cream, sprinkled with green shredded coconut and then chilled.

Miss Dunn demonstrated the many appliances on display by local merchants, including a refrigerator with a new icemaker, an air conditioning system, hot water tank and incinerator.

Emphasizing the clean cooking of gas during the program, she wiped the bottom of a skillet, straight from the flame, on her white formal.

James W. Cole and Shauna Marie Humphrey again selected names of guests who were presented gifts from the participating merchants.

Mrs. R. Dale Fruehling of 963 S. Pickaway St. was presented with a Sunray Automatic Gas Range as a special gift on the program. Mrs. Fruehling, mother of two sons, is the wife of the pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

The yellow trim on the range will blend perfectly with her kitchen, which is predominantly yellow. Mrs. Fruehling stated that she was thrilled with her gift, especially since her present stove has seen long, hard service. She was intrigued by the many modern conveniences of the stove.

Christine Hagen of 218 Walnut St. was awarded a 52-piece set of silverplate.

Jean Schiff of Ashville Route 2 was recipient of an electric mixer.

Mrs. Lester George of Ashville Route 2 received a certificate for linoleum tile to re-do a room.

Grocery baskets were awarded too: Eleanor Huffer of Stoutsville Route 1; Mrs. Lloyd Shaw of Williamsport Route 2; Mrs. Roy Huffer of 426 N. Court St.; Frank Rockwell, Circleville Route 1; Mrs. Ruth Steinhauer, Clarksville Route 1; Mrs. Agnes Reigel, Ashville; Mrs. Albert Waits, 216 N. Scioto St.; and Mrs. Austin Greene, Circleville Route 2.

Child Culture League Hears Dr. Faust At Guest Meeting

Dr. Floyd Faust, pastor of the Broad Street Christian church of Columbus, was guest speaker at a husbands and guests night meeting of the Child Culture League.

The event was held in the social rooms of the Presbyterian church with Mrs. Clark Martin, club president in charge.

Dr. Faust, a noted lecturer and after dinner speaker, used as his subject, "Are You Fit To Be Tied?" His address stressed the fact that churches and schools are the basic pillars of our society and that without them our nation would soon fall.

The speaker noted that love and discipline properly mingled are the upmost importance in the early life of children. He also stated that lonely children are most often the juvenile delinquents.

Dr. Faust related several humorous anecdotes which also had a sober lesson regarding the early life of a child.

Christian Living--Temperance

WE ARE TOLD HOW WE CAN LIVE LIKE CHRIST

Scripture—Acts 20:17-35; Romans 6:12-14; Ephesians 5:1-21; Colossians 3:1-11; Thessalonians 4:1-8; Peter 1:13-16; John 2:1-17.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IF WE WOULD LEARN how to live our lives as Christ would have us, we should carefully study the lesson assigned us today. We are given so many references that we can only mention them briefly but, of course, the teacher will study them all.

Paul was on his third missionary journey. It was to be his last. When he was in Miletus he sent to Ephesus, 20 miles away, and called the elders of the Ephesian church to come to him.

"And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons.

"And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there.

"And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

"I have shewed you all things, how so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

"And when he had thus spoken,

In the days of Paul, almost 1900 years ago, the same sins were committed as plague our modern world. We are still battling them. We must still "Mortify our members which are upon the earth," as Paul writes to the Colossians, and he further writes: "But now ye also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man which is renewed in knowledge after the image of Him that created him.

"Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering."

"Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

"For ye know that commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in he knelt down, and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the words he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

MEMORY VERSE

"But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy."—1 Peter 1:15-16.

This parting will remind us all, even small children, of partings from some one beloved, with the possibility of never seeing him or her again. That is one of the deplorable facts about divorce when there are children.

Youngsters usually love both parents, and suffer when they leave the home and they may see him or her no more. It is proved that children of such broken homes more often take to crime than those who have a normal home life.

Especially is it true of older persons who have had a beloved pastor who comforted them in sorrow, rejoiced with them in happiness, and helped them spiritually for many years. We all have memories of such a loss to ourselves, our fellow church members and the town or city where he lived. We may weep, too, if such a one leaves us to be seen by us no more.

sanctification and honor;

"That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified."

We have six different books of the Testament in which we are given references in this lesson, and our space is limited. We close, therefore, with the words of John:

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

"And He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

"And hereby we do know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

"But whose keepeth His word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in Him.

"He that saith He abideth in Him ought himself also to walk, even as He walked." 1 John 2:1-6.

Christian Living--Temperance

WE ARE TOLD HOW WE CAN LIVE LIKE CHRIST

Scripture—Acts 20:17-35; Romans 6:12-14; Ephesians 5:1-21; Colossians 3:1-11; Thessalonians 4:1-8; Peter 1:13-16; John 2:1-17.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IF WE WOULD LEARN how to live our lives as Christians, we should carefully study the lesson assigned us today. We are given so many references that we can only mention them briefly but, of course, the teacher will study them all.

Paul was on his third missionary journey. It was to be his last. When he was in Miletus he sent to Ephesus, 20 miles away, and called the elders of the Ephesian church to come to him.

"And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there."

"And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more."

"I have shewed you all things, how so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

"And when he had thus spoken,

In the days of Paul, almost 1900 years ago, the same sins were committed as plague our modern world. We are still battling them. We must still "Mortify our members which are upon the earth," as Paul writes to the Colossians, and he further writes: "But now ye also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man which is renewed in knowledge after the image of Him that created him."

"Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering."

"Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more."

"For ye know that commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in

MEMORY VERSE

"But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy."—1 Peter 1:15-16.

he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the words he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship."

This parting will remind us all, even small children, of partings from some one beloved, with the possibility of never seeing him or her again. That is one of the deplorable facts about divorce when there are children.

Youngsters usually love both parents, and suffer when one leaves the home and they may see him or her no more. It is proved that children of such broken homes more often take to crime than those who have a normal home life.

Especially is it true of older persons who have had a beloved pastor who comforted them in sorrow, rejoiced with them in happiness, and helped them spiritually for many years. We all have memories of such a loss to ourselves, our fellow church members and the town or city where he lived. We may weep, too, if such a one leaves us to be seen by us no more.

sanctification and honor;

"That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified."

We have six different books of the Testament in which we are given references in this lesson, and our space is limited. We choose, therefore, with the words of John:

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

"And He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

"And hereby we do know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. He that saith, I know Him, and keepeth not His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him."

"But whoso keepeth His word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in Him."

"He that saith He abideth in Him ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked."—1 John 2:1-6.

Regional Tests Weed Out List Of Ohio Cagers

13 Class B, 14 Class A Outfits Remain In Chase For State Titles

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 748-team Class B high school basketball field was down to 13 today, and the 308-team Class A contingent had been shaved to 14, as the regional tournament weeding out process got under way.

Only four in each division will be left tomorrow night, and they'll go into state tournament action March 25-26 at the Cincinnati Gardens.

Archbold (23-1), Montgomery Local of Wood County (23-4) and seventh-ranked Newark St. Francis (24-2) dropped out of the Class B fight last night, along with Cleveland West (18-3) and Cleveland Glenville (14-5) in Class A.

Of the 13 still left in Class B, eight were members of The Associated Press top 10 in the season's final pre-tournament poll. Newark St. Francis, only one of the elite to fall last night, was a 79-63 victim at Athens of another top 10 member, eighth-place Pleasant City which now boasts a 26-1 record.

Fourth-place Willshire ran its unbroken winning streak to 27 with an 88-61 victory over Montgomery Local at Toledo, and Sycamore (24-5) ended Archbold's 23-1 record with a 63-50 conquest.

All the Class A action was in the Cleveland regional where Akron Central made it 19-1 with a 65-54 win over Cleveland West which sported an 18-3 record. Cleveland East Tech (18-3) triumphed 74-50 over Glenville which went into the game with a 14-5 mark.

Akron Central and Cleveland East Tech meet tonight to see which wins the first state tournament berth. Class A semifinals also are slated tonight at Cincinnati, Toledo and Canton, with top-ranked Columbus East (24-1) and sixth-ranked Toledo Libbey (22-1) meeting in the feature attraction along the lake.

They are two of the four top 10 teams left in Class A, and the winner gets a crack tomorrow at the winner of tonight's contest between fifth-ranked Mansfield (19-5) and Sandusky 18-7.

The only Class B game between teams of the top 10 sends Columbus S. Mary's third-ranked team (25-1) against Bowersville-Jefferson, ninth with 26-1, at Troy, Vienna, the No. 1 team with 27 straight, gets a chance to enhance its hopes by meeting 11th place Liberty Twp. of Trumbull County (24-4) at Kent. Three of Liberty's four losses have been at Vienna's hands.

Middletown's five-time champions face their sternest test of the season at Cincinnati as they tangle with Cincinnati Hughes which has lost only one of 23 games. The Middies, involved in one of their poorest seasons in years, have a 16-7 record to tie Steubenville's Big Red for the lowest mark boasted by the regional qualifiers.

The state's longest Class A winning streaks go against each other in the Columbus East-Toledo Libbey contest. East has won 22 in a row, and Libbey 20.

Baseball Due To Celebrate For Full Week

COLUMBUS (AP)—From the smallest sandlot teams up to the major leagues, baseball talk takes over tomorrow for a full week.

It's National Baseball Week, and more than five million persons are actively engaged in its promotion, says George M. Trautman, president of the minor leagues.

Forty-two of the 48 governors have issued proclamations, asking citizens to get behind the movement of rededication to the national sport.

More than 150 minor league clubs are in the midst of pre-season ticket sales, and Trautman says some of them will be out of the red before the first ball is thrown.

Major league baseball will observe National Baseball Week in each of 11 Florida cities where 13 of the 16 big league clubs are in training.

Trautman calls the drive "the greatest concentrated move to bring baseball to the high place in the public mind which it deserves." He added:

"This is not a week just for professional baseball; it is for all baseball, amateur and professional alike. Of course we of the professional field have an intelligent, selfish interest, for we know that anything which benefits all baseball will help us to some extent."

Argentine Cagers Lead Pan-Am Meet

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Argentina is leading the Pan-American basketball tournament today, victor over a U. S. team that was supposed to take the championship with comparative ease.

The Gauchos, led by that veteran of Olympic basketball, lean Oscar Furlong, beat the United States, 54-53, last night and now appear to have the Pan-American title in the bag. Argentina led virtually all the way, once being ahead by 13 points.

Washington Nats Pointing Only At First Division Spot

The Associated Press

While some baseball clubs strive toward winning pennants, the Washington Senators would be content to wind up in the first division—which is what Manager Chuck Dressen is pointing for in 1955.

Not since 1946 has Washington finished among the top four clubs in the American League. The Nats were fourth that year. In 1950, '52 and '53 they were fifth. Since they won their last pennant in 1933, the Senators have been in the first division only five times.

Dressen, who led the Brooklyn Dodgers to two straight National League flags in 1952 and 1953, has his Nats riding atop the Grapefruit and Cactus League standings today with a 4-2 won-lost record.

"Our goal is to finish in the first division," Dressen said. "With luck we may even finish as high as third."

He thinks his club has a chance provided the "big guys don't get hurt." He meant first baseman Mickey Vernon, outfielder Jim Busby and third baseman Eddie

Yost. He also regards pitching as the strongest part of his team.

One of the "big guys," Eddie Yost, homered to start the bottom half of the first inning yesterday and the Senators went on to defeat the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-4 for their fourth straight victory.

The Boston Red Sox broke a three-game losing streak by whipping the Milwaukee Braves 8-5. Billy Goodman collected three hits and batted in three runs.

Al Kaline scooted home from third base on Jack Phillips' slow infield roller in the ninth inning to give the Detroit Tigers a 3-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

The New York Yankees turned back the St. Louis Cards 7-4, getting three unearned runs in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie.

The Kansas City Athletics received effective pitching from Art Ditmar and Marion Fricano and downed the Chicago White Sox 8-2. Bob Nieman of the Sox produced four hits.

Regional Tests Weed Out List Of Ohio Cagers

13 Class B, 14 Class A Outfits Remain In Chase For State Titles

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 748-team Class B high school basketball field was down to 13 today, and the 308-team Class A contingent had been shaved to 14, as the regional tournament weeding out process got under way.

Only four in each division will be left tomorrow night, and they'll go into state tourney action March 25-26 at the Cincinnati Gardens.

Archbold (23-1), Montgomery Local of Wood County (23-4) and seventh-ranked Newark-St. Francis (24-2) dropped out of the Class B fight last night, along with Cleveland West (18-3) and Cleveland Glenview (14-5) in Class A.

Of the 13 still left in Class B, eight were members of The Associated Press top 10 in the season's final pre-tourney poll. Newark-St. Francis, only one of the elite to fall last night, was a 79-63 victim at Athens of another top 10 member, eighth-place Pleasant City which now boasts a 26-1 record.

Fourth-place Willshire ran its unbroken winning streak to 27 with an 88-61 victory over Montgomery Local at Toledo, and Sycamore (24-5) ended Archbold's 23-1 record with a 63-50 conquest.

All the Class A action was in the Cleveland regional where Akron Central made it 19-1 with a 65-54 win over Cleveland West which sported an 18-3 record. Cleveland East Tech (18-3) triumphed 74-50 over Glenview which went into the game with a 14-5 mark.

Akron Central and Cleveland East Tech meet tonight to see which wins the first state tourney berth. Class A semifinals also are slated tonight at Cincinnati, Toledo and Canton, with top-ranked Columbus East (24-1) and sixth-ranked Toledo Libbey (22-1) meeting in the feature attraction along the lake.

They are two of the four top 10 teams left in Class A, and the winner gets a crack tomorrow at the winner of tonight's contest between fifth-ranked Mansfield (19-5) and Sandusky 18-7.

The only Class B game between teams of the top 10 sends Columbus S. Mary's third-ranked team (25-1) against Bowersville-Jefferson, ninth with 26-1, at Troy, Vienna, the No. 1 team with 27 straight, gets a chance to enhance its hopes by meeting 11th place Liberty Twp. of Trumbull County (24-4) at Kent. Three of Liberty's four losses have been at Vienna's hands.

Middletown's five-time champions face their sternest test of the season at Cincinnati as they tangle with Cincinnati Hughes which has lost only one of 23 games. The Middies, involved in one of their poorest seasons in years, have a 16-7 record to tie Steubenville's Big Red for the lowest mark boasted by the regional qualifiers.

The state's longest Class A winning streaks go against each other in the Columbus East-Toledo Libbey contest. East has won 22 in a row, and Libbey 20.

Baseball Due To Celebrate For Full Week

COLUMBUS (AP)—From the smallest sandlot teams up to the major leagues, baseball talk takes over tomorrow for a full week.

It's National Baseball Week, and more than five million persons are actively engaged in its promotion, says George M. Trautman, president of the minor leagues.

Forty-two of the 48 governors have issued proclamations, asking citizens to get behind the movement of rededication to the national sport.

More than 150 minor league clubs are in the midst of pre-season ticket sales, and Trautman says some of them will be out of the red before the first ball is thrown.

Major league baseball will observe National Baseball Week in each of 11 Florida cities where 13 of the 16 big league clubs are in training.

Trautman calls the drive "the greatest concentrated move to bring baseball to the high place in the public mind which it deserves." He added:

"This is not a week just for professional baseball; it is for all baseball, amateur and professional alike. Of course we of the professional field have an intelligent, selfish interest, for we know that anything which benefits all baseball will help us to some extent."

Argentine Cagers Lead Pan-Am Meet

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Argentina is leading the Pan-American basketball tournament today, victor over a U. S. team that was supposed to take the championship with comparative ease.

The Gauchos, led by that veteran of Olympic basketball, lean Oscar Furlong, beat the United States, 54-53, last night and now appear to have the Pan-American title in the bag. Argentina led virtually all the way, once being ahead by 13 points.

Washington Nats Pointing Only At First Division Spot

The Associated Press While some baseball clubs strive toward winning pennants, the Washington Senators would be content to wind up in the first division—which is what Manager Chuck Dressen is pointing for in 1955.

Not since 1946 has Washington finished among the top four clubs in the American League. The Nats were fourth that year. In 1950, '52 and '53 they were fifth. Since they won their last pennant in 1933, the Senators have been in the first division only five times.

Dressen, who led the Brooklyn Dodgers to two straight National League flags in 1952 and 1953, has his Nats riding atop the Grapefruit and Cactus League standings today with a 4-2 won-lost record.

"Our goal is to finish in the first division," Dressen said. "With luck we may even finish as high as third."

He thinks his club has a chance provided the "big guys don't get hurt." He meant first baseman Mickey Vernon, outfielder Jim Busby and third baseman Eddie

Yost. He also regards pitching as the strongest part of his team.

One of the "big guys," Eddie Yost, homered to start the bottom half of the first inning yesterday and the Senators went on to defeat the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-4 in their fourth straight victory.

The Boston Red Sox broke a three-game losing streak by whipping the Milwaukee Braves 8-5. Billy Goodman collected three hits and batted in three runs.

Al Kaline scooted home from third base on Jack Phillips' slow infield roller in the ninth inning to give the Detroit Tigers a 3-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

The New York Yankees turned back the St. Louis Cards 7-4, getting three unearned runs in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie.

The Kansas City Athletics received effective pitching from Art Ditmar and Marion Fricano and downed the Chicago White Sox 8-2. Bob Nieman of the Sox produced four hits.

Chico Fernandez's error on Gus Triandos' double-play grounder led in the winning run as the Baltimore Orioles nosed out the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-4 in 10 innings.

In another extra-inning game, the Chicago Cubs outlasted the Cleveland Indians 8-7 in 11 frames.

Dukes, Dayton To Meet In NIT Finals

NEW YORK (AP)—It's Duquesne and Dayton, as expected, for the National Invitation basketball tournament title tomorrow night, but the fans will be coming back to see Maurice Stokes.

It was Stokes who turned half last night's semifinals into a Madison Square Garden thriller. All the guy did was take on Dayton single-handed for little St. Francis, Pa., and he almost pulled it off. Dayton had to go into overtime to outlast Stokes and win 79-73.

Top-ranked Duquesne had a terrible night as far as finesse was concerned, but the Dukes didn't need any more than they had to dispose of Cincinnati 65-51. The nightmare isn't over for the fourth-seeded Bearcats. They now have to face St. Francis and Stokes in tomorrow night's third-place game.

All the night's action and suspense was crammed into the 45-minute opener between second-seeded Dayton, with its 7-foot Bill Uhl and 6-9 Johnny Horan, and St. Francis, with its 6-6 Stokes.

Stokes had Dayton on the ropes throughout, totaling 43 points and playing like a man and a half under the boards and on defense.

The Frankies jumped off into a lead in the second half and went into control tactics.

That strategy of Coach William Hughes began with 13 minutes left and the Frankies leading 56-48.

It should have worked. But the Frankies missed three layups and had to settle for a 67-67 tie at the final buzzer.

The overtime was all Dayton as Horan, who finished with 30, and Uhl, who got 20, wrapped it up.

LaSalle Set To Meet Iowa In NCAA Test

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The LaSalle Explorers defend their national collegiate basketball crown against Iowa's Big Ten champion Hawkeyes tonight in the semifinal round of the 17th NCAA tournament.

Following the LaSalle-Iowa opener the western delegates — San Francisco and Colorado — will clash.

The Municipal Auditorium arena is assured of a bulging crowd of more than 10,000 for both the semifinals and tomorrow night's finals.

Coach Ken Loeffler's Explorers, who crushed Bradley, 92-76, for their first NCAA title here last year, got into the final again by beating West Virginia in the first round at New York, then taking Princeton and Canisius.

The Explorers, featuring All-America Tom Gola, have a 25-4 record.

Iowa, coached by Bucky O'Connor, had a first round bye then handled Penn State and Marquette in reaching the semifinals. The Hawkeyes have a winter-long record of 19-5.

San Francisco's Dons' beaten only once in 27 games, whipped West Texas in the first round and then defeated Utah and Oregon State. Colorado qualified by winning the Big Seven title and beating Tulsa and Bradley in the regionals at Manhattan, Kan. The Buffaloes stand 18-5 for the season.

Newcomers Due For Garden Debut

NEW YORK (AP)—A couple of youngsters who never before have been in a Madison Square Garden main event, Joey Lopes and Carmelo Costa, go at it in the televised 10 there tonight.

Both have impressive records. Lopes was a cautious 6-5 choice after the odds had fluctuated back and forth for two days. They have agreed to come in at 132 pounds, so although Lopes is a lightweight and Costa a featherweight, there will be little difference in size.

They each are No. 9 in their respective divisions.

Hockey Fans Riot As Star Is Suspended

MONTREAL (AP)—Rabid hockey fans rioted last night over the suspension of Maurice Richard, star of the Montreal Canadiens.

They set off a tear-gas bomb in the Montreal Forum and pelted Clarence Campbell, National Hockey League president, with tomatoes, eggs and peanuts.

Only the quick work of Fire Chief Armand Pare, who ordered the game with Detroit Red Wings halted, averted a panic. Tear-gas fumes billowed up and thousands struggled, choking, coughing and weeping, for the exits.

No serious injuries were reported, although several persons were hit by the flying missiles.

Other thousands, unable to get in to the game, milled outside. There violence erupted anew. Bricks, chunks of ice and bottles were hurled. Store windows were smashed. Missiles were thrown into streetcars. Trolley wires were pulled down.

Police said they had arrested "about 60 or 65 persons and they're still coming in." Most were expected to be charged with disturbing the peace.

The mob fury was directed primarily at Campbell. He suspended Richard, idol of Montreal hockey fans, Wednesday for attacking a player and an official in a game Sunday in Boston.

This was equivalent to Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, in the United States, suspending Willie Mays of the New York Giants in the midst of a crucial pennant-deciding series with the Brooklyn Dodgers and also keeping Mays out of the World Series.

Ed Furgol, winner of the Phoenix Open in 1954, finished 18th this year. Gene Littler won the title this time.

How to eliminate side- and top-dressing

With

AGRICULTURE'S MOST USEFUL FORM OF NITROGEN

This is only one of the many ways you profit by plowing down crop wastes or cover crops with AERO® CYANAMID, Granular. Cyanamid turns plowed-down organic matter into crop-building, money-making humus... and you get all these benefits:

- Lower production costs. By using Cyanamid you can eliminate the trouble and expense of supplementary fertilization through side- or top-dressing.
- MORE valuable humus—FASTER! Cyanamid speeds up the rotting of crop wastes or cover crops. You get maximum amounts of good, rich humus to improve the condition of your soil and supply the following crop with a steady source of nitrogen. Result: better stands, sturdier plants, higher yields.
- 20% of the right kind of nitrogen. The nitrogen in Cyanamid resists leaching... is available to your crops from plow down until harvest. This "staying" quality of Cyanamid permits plow down at any time of year.
- 70% necessary lime. Cyanamid contains not only 20% nitrogen, but each ton supplies the equivalent of one ton of ground limestone. You need this active calcium to neutralize soil acidity. It's one of the big bonuses you get in Cyanamid.
- Deeper rooting. Plow down with Cyanamid puts nitrogen down in the root zone where it can be used by the plants. This encourages deeper rooting, helps your crop withstand drought.
- And you avoid lower yields which so often follow plow down of crop wastes and mature cover crops alone.

WRITE FOR THIS FREE BOOKLET. Contents include recommended rates of AERO Cyanamid per acre for building humus in terms of the material to be plowed under and the crop to be grown... approximate weights of crop residues for plow down in terms of yield per acre... what sort of fertilizer to use at planting time when Cyanamid is plowed under or discing in before planting. Columbus East Cage Coach Voted As Best Of 1954-55

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's coaches and sports editors today named Jack Moore of Columbus East, and Joe Martin of Lockland Wayne, as the No. 1 high school basketball mentors for the 1954-55 campaign.

Moore, age 30, and Martin, 46, will present their once - beaten teams in regional semi-final games tonight. Columbus East (24-1 goes against Toledo Libbey (22-1) in a Toledo Class A test, while Lockland Wayne (23-1) meets Miami Central (22-2) in the Troy Class B tourney.

The Columbus East pilot made it in his second year as head coach. Martin was the Class B choice for the second straight year — the only basketball mentor ever to be so honored in the annual Associated Press poll.

Moore is a graduate of Columbus South where he won seven letters as an all-around athlete. At Ohio Wesleyan he won eight letters, spent more than two years in the Pacific as a naval gunner, and went to Columbus East six years ago as reserve coach. He took over the top job a year ago, winning 14 of 20, after Bucky Walters moved to Springfield.

Martin, known as "Gentleman Joe" to the coaching fraternity, started at Lockland Wayne in 1940, the first year the school had a team. His teams, playing many Class A squads annually, have won 365 and lost 42. His lone loss this year was to Middletown, five-time state Class A king.

In last year's state tourney at Cleveland, Moore and Martin were side-by-side as assistant statisticians. Moore confided at that time that "East will be loaded next year—watch us."

But Martin said he was losing six of his first 12 by graduation, one boy was dropping from school and another going into the service. "Looks like we'll lose at least half our games," he summed up.

But, with his team now up there knocking at the Class B throne which it occupied in 1952, Martin said:

"This team has a lot of desire. We don't have the finesse we had a year ago, due to the lack of veterans, but spirit counts for much in high school basketball—and our boys have it."

Martin is one of the quiet guys on the bench. His daughter recently accused him of sleeping on the bench during a game, but Joe said he generally sees all that occurs on the court. Moore watches every move during a game, and gets more exercise on the bench than his players get on the floor.

Dick Shriver of Gallipolis, last year's Class A coach of the year, finished second to Moore this time. Others high in the class A list were George Heller of Portsmouth, Harold Andreas of Kent Roosevelt, Carl Bachman of Findlay, Wayne Ashbaugh of Zanesville, Chuck Williams of Shelby, John Stuckey of St. Marys, Al Jeffery of Toledo Libbey, Paul Walker of Middletown, Claire Cribbs of Bellaire, and John Broski of Cleveland East Tech.

Class B coaches who chased Martin to the wire were John Wickline of Rio Grande, Bob Greenwood of Chagrin Falls Orange, John Parsons of Middleport, Randall Wilson of Vienna, Bob Hart of Junction City, Walt Borek of Flushing, Columbus Hines of Dixie, and Ken Neville of Columbus St. Mary.

Herb Score Shines In Cleveland Game

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' 8-7 loss to the Chicago Cubs yesterday in 11 innings had its bright side for the Tribe in the hitless pitching of Herb Score.

The 22-year-old southpaw, making his first exhibition game start, struck out three and walked two in goose - egging the Cubs through the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Before that the Cubs had piled up a 5-2 lead on Mike Garcia in the first three.

Both of Score's walks came in the fifth, and the runners were sacrificed to third. But he fanned Ransom Jackson on a called-strike curve and threw out Steve Bilko who tapped to the mound.

HOTELS USE FOAM TO CLEAN CARPETS

Good hotels, whose carpets get far more wear than yours, know foam cleaner is the answer. Hotel managers say foam cleaner such as Fina Foam does the job quicker and better than any other kind. Foam is easier to use, leaves nap fluffy and brings the colors back like new.

With the new Fina Foam, you clean your wall-to-wall carpeting standing up, easily with a long handle brush, and it's ready for use in a few hours. It's economical, too. A gallon of concentrate for $2.25 makes three gallons of solution, enough for three 9x12 rugs.

HOTELS USE FOAM
TO CLEAN CARPETS

Good hotels, whose carpets get far more wear than yours, know foam cleaner is the answer.

Hotel managers say foam cleaner such as Fina Foam does the job quicker and better than any other kind. Foam is easier to use, leaves nap fluffy and brings the colors back like new.

With the new Fina Foam, you clean your wall-to-wall carpeting standing up, easily with a long handled brush, and it's ready for use in a few hours. It's economical, too. A gallon of concentrate for $2.25 makes three gallons of solution, enough for three 9x12 rugs.

Redlegs Need Good Pitching To Go With Big 5' Hitters

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—With a "Big Five" that drove in 524 runs last season, almost as many as Pittsburgh scored all year, Cincinnati's hopes of a first-division finish rest in improving its pitching staff.

Manager Birdie Tebbets, fortified by a new three-year contract, knows the big bats of Ted Kluszewski, Gus Bell, Jim Greengrass, Al Ray Jablonski and Wally Post will provide the runs. All he needs is somebody to stop the other clubs. Tebbets has a long range plan for building a staff around a nucleus of lefthander Joe Nuxhall (12-5) and righthanders Harold (Corky) Valentine (12-11) and Art Fowler (12-10).

"I think those three are capable of winning between 15 and 20 games each," said Tebbets at Al Lopez Field. "Last spring I wasn't sure I had anybody that could win

12. Now I know I have three. Nuxhall (26) and Valentine (25) have youth on their side and Fowler (31) was a late comer."

Nuxhall, who broke into the majors at the tender age of 15, finally arrived last season, closing with a rush after holding a mediocre 3-2 record in mid-season. The 6 feet 3 southpaw seems to have conquered his old control problem.

Valentine, making the big jump to the majors from Columbia, S. C. of the Sally League, was most effective in the early season, Fowler who failed with the New York Giants and Boston (now Milwaukee) Braves, pitched steady ball all season.

Gerry Staley, who came to Cincinnati from St. Louis with Jablonski last December in the deal for reliever Frank Smith, never did get started with the Cards last year and had a 7-13 mark. At 31, the righthander is confident he still can win in the majors.

Tebbetts hopes for more help from lefthanded Fred Baczewski (6-6) who completed only four of 22 starts, Johnny Klippstein (4-11 with Chicago) and Jackie Collum (7-3) and Howie Judson (5-7), who were with the club last year, figure for relief.

The most promising rookie pitchers are Rudy Minarcin (11-2 at Toronto), Jim Pearce (17-7 at Chattanooga), Jerry Lane (13-8 at Chattanooga) and lefthander Cliff Ross (13-10 at Schenectady).

Except for the pitching staff, Cincinnati is a set ball club with Kluszewski, whose 49 homers and 141 runs batted in led both majors, a fixture at first base, Johnny Temple (.307) will play second base and lead off, Roy McMillan (.250) is one of the slickest shortstops in the game, Jablonski, working hard to overcome a reputation as a "butcher" on defense, will play third base with his record of a .296 average and 104 runs batted in at St. Louis.

Bobby Adams (.269) is the No. 1 utility man who can step in at second or third. Rocky Bridges (.231) is another handyman, as is Chuck Harmon (3.28).

The outfield of Greengrass (2.80) in left, Bell (.299) in center and Post (.255) in right produced a total of 62 home runs and knocked in 279 runs last year. Bob Borkowski (.265), Glen Gorbous, (.283 at Ft. Worth) and free agent Bob Thurman, 32-year-old Negro who quit organized ball to play in the Dominican Republic the last two years, are likely to stick.

Andy Seminick (.235) still is the No. 1 catcher at 34, but Ed Bailey, a lefthanded hitter who batted only .197 last season, is the hope for the future if he can improve at bat. Tobie Landrith will be the third catcher if Tebbets decides to keep three.

The Reds finished fifth last season, only a game behind fourth-place Philadelphia and only two ahead of the sixth-place Cards. They had a team average of .262 but let the opposition bat at a .280 clip. Although they hit 147 homers, the enemy hit 169.

Cincinnati is a dangerous club that will give everybody trouble, but doesn't appear to have enough pitching to catch any of the clubs that finished ahead of them in '54.

Vaunted Redleg Power Is Missing

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—What has happened to all of that power hitting the Cincinnati Redlegs were supposed to have? That was a prime question today as the Reds returned to their Tampa "home" after a four-day junket to other spring training camps.

A 6-4 setback yesterday at the

New Bait OK, But Experts Cite Sanitation In Fly Curb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A team of entomologists at Ohio State University believes several formations of dry fly bait now being formulated by commercial companies will produce satisfactory fly control under favorable conditions.

However, they warned that there is no substitute for sanitation in any fly control program.

T. H. Parks and D. L. Goleman, entomologists of OU's Agricultural Extension Service, have been conducting tests with dry and liquid baits to determine their effectiveness in controlling flies.

Research has been stepped up in the field of control since 1948, when it became apparent that most flies had developed a resistance to DDT.

"Some dry baits were on the market last year," Goleman said. "But we expect a major test for the control product to come this summer."

The baits contain sugar, ground oyster shells or other carriers to attract flies in combination with a phosphorus compound which acts as the toxicant.

Baits are sold in convenient and easy-to-use containers which no doubt will appeal to the public, Goleman said.

"We will have controlled flies in the butchering rooms at OSU by sprinkling dry bait on the window ledges and certain spots on the floor where flies congregate following butchering operations," Parks said.

He said the room was then closed overnight, resulting in an almost complete kill by the following day.

According to Parks and Goleman, dry fly baits also have given adequate control in fruit market sales rooms, where sanitation measures and screening have failed to cope with the problem satisfactorily.

Baits were used successfully in swine barns, animal hospitals, in garages and around garbage cans.

"The particle size makes it unprofitable to use dry baits on floors or surfaces where straw or other bedding is present," Goleman said.

He said the presence of a competing food supply also will influence the effectiveness of the bait control program.

Sokolsky's These Days

3. A large number of mergers have taken place, offering splendid opportunities for a profit by the sale of stock. Smart operators are always looking for such opportunities and often buy on the prospect that such an opportunity may occur. When a tight proxy fight takes place and each side is anxious to come into possession of increasing amounts of stock, it is likely that the price will rise, even if only temporarily. A profit can be made during the period of anxiety.

The high prices for American equities are more likely to be due to a hedge against continued inflation than to any other cause, but the real danger to our economy lies in a possible lowering of the value of the dollar in Europe, which could be very serious indeed. The problem then that the Fulbright Committee ought to investigate if it really is concerned with our economic dangers is not the New York stock market but the world position of the dollar.

These Days

hands of Washington gave the Reds a 4-4 record for the exhibition season.

In those eight games the team has done only sporadic slugging and yesterday a trio of Washington pitchers held the Reds to seven hits—all of them singles.

Redlegs Need Good Pitching To Go With Big 5' Hitters

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—With a "Big Five" that drove in 524 runs last season, almost as many as Pittsburgh scored all year, Cincinnati's hopes of a first-division finish rest in improving its pitching staff.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts, fortified by a new three-year contract, knows the big bats of Ted Kluszewski, Gus Bell, Jim Greengrass, Ray Jablonski and Wally Post will provide the runs. All he needs is somebody to stop the other clubs. Tebbetts has a long range plan for building a staff around a nucleus of lefthander Joe Nuxhall (12-5) and righthanders Harold (Corky) Valentine (12-11) and Art Fowler (12-10).

"I think those three are capable of winning between 15 and 20 games each," said Tebbetts at Al Lopez Field. "Last spring I wasn't sure I had anybody that could win

12. Now I know I have three. Nuxhall (26) and Valentine (25) have youth on their side and Fowler (31) was a late comer."

Nuxhall, who broke into the majors at the tender age of 15, finally arrived last season, closing with a rush after holding a mediocre 3-2 record in mid-season. The 6 feet 3 southpaw seems to have conquered his old control problem.

Valentine, making the big jump to the majors from Columbia, S. C. of the Sally League, was most effective in the early season. Fowler who failed with the New York Giants and Boston (now Milwaukee) Braves, pitched steady ball all season.

Gerry Staley, who came to Cincinnati from St. Louis with Jablonski last December in the deal for reliever Frank Smith, never did get started with the Cards last year and had a 7-13 mark. At 31, the righthander is confident he still can win in the majors.

Tebbetts hopes for more help from lefthanded Fred Baczewski (6-6) who completed only four of 22 starts. Johnny Klippstein (4-11 with Chicago) and Jackie Collum (7-3) and Howie Judson (5-7), who were with the club last year, figure for relief.

The most promising rookie pitchers are Rudy Minarcin (11-2 at Toronto), Jim Pearce (17-7 at Chattanooga), Jerry Lane (13-8 at Chattanooga) and lefthander Cliff Ross (13-10 at Schenectady).

Except for the pitching staff, Cincinnati is a set ball club with Kluszewski, whose 49 homers and 141 runs batted in led both majors, a fixture at first base. Johnny Temple (.307) will play second base and lead off. Roy McMillan (.250) is one of the slickest shortstops in the game. Jablonski, working hard to overcome a reputation as a "butcher" on defense, will play third base with his record of a .296 average and 104 runs batted in at St. Louis.

Bobby Adams (.269) is the No. 1 utility man who can step in at second or third. Rocky Bridges (.231) is another handyman, as is Chuck Harmon (3.28).

The outfield of Greengrass (2.80) in left, Bell (.299) in center and Post (.255) in right produced a total of 62 home runs and knocked in 279 runs last year. Bob Borkowski (.265), Glen Gorbous, (.283 at Ft. Worth) and free agent Bob Thurman, 32-year-old Negro who quit organized ball to play in the Dominican Republic the last two years, are likely to stick.

Andy Seminick (.235) still is the No. 1 catcher at 34, but Ed Bailey, a lefthanded hitter who batted only .197 last season, is the hope for the future if he can improve at bat. Tobie Landrith will be the third catcher if Tebbetts decides to keep three.

The Reds finished fifth last season, only a game behind fourth-place Philadelphia and only two ahead of the sixth-place Cards. They had a team average of .262 but let the opposition bat at a .280 clip. Although they hit 147 homers, the enemy hit 169.

Cincinnati is a dangerous club that will give everybody trouble, but doesn't appear to have enough pitching to catch any of the clubs that finished ahead of them in '54.

Vaunted Redleg Power Is Missing

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—What has happened to all that power hitting the Cincinnati Redlegs were supposed to have? That was a prime question today as the Reds returned to their Tampa "home" after a four-day junket to other spring training camps.

New Bait OK, But Experts Cite Sanitation In Fly Curb

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A team of entomologists at Ohio State University believes several formations of dry fly bait now being formulated by commercial companies will produce satisfactory fly control under favorable conditions.

However, they warned that there is no substitute for sanitation in any fly control program.

T. H. Parks and D. L. Goleman, entomologists of OU's Agricultural Extension Service, have been conducting tests with dry and liquid baits to determine their effectiveness in controlling flies.

Research has been stepped up in the field of control since 1948, when it became apparent that most flies had developed a resistance to DDT.

"Some dry baits were on the market last year," Goleman said. "But we expect a major test for the control product to come this summer."

The baits contain sugar, ground oyster shells or other carriers to attract flies in combination with a phosphorus compound which acts as the toxicant.

Baits are sold in convenient and easy-to-use containers which no doubt will appeal to the public, Goleman said.

"We will have controlled flies in the butchering rooms at OSU by sprinkling dry bait on the window ledges and certain spots on the floor where flies congregate following butchering operations," Parks said.

He said the room was then closed overnight, resulting in an almost complete kill by the following day.

According to Parks and Goleman, dry fly baits also have given adequate control in fruit market sales rooms, where sanitation measures and screening have failed to cope with the problem satisfactorily.

Baits were used successfully in swine barns, animal hospitals, in garages and around garbage cans.

"The particle size makes it unprofitable to use dry baits on floors or surfaces where straw or other bedding is present," Goleman said.

He said the presence of a competing food supply also will influence the effectiveness of the bait control program.

Frequent applications are necessary and the control of the fly population may be somewhat slower than that obtained with liquid bait, he added.

Liquid baits, when applied as a spot treatment, are remarkably effective for a day. For adequate control, supplies must be replenished daily.

The liquid bait is comprised of sweetened water mixed with Malathion, a chemical compound, and has been on the market for two or three seasons.

Goleman said baits are poisonous and should not be exposed where children, domestic animals, or chickens come in contact with them.

They should not be applied directly to the animals or in the home, he warned.

For home use, space sprays in pressure containers appear to be the most effective weapon against flies, according to Parks.

The "bombs" containing pyrethrum, a powder used to exterminate insects, are very satisfactory for quick knock-down and kill of flies already present in the home.

"But the fly swatter still is a mighty potent weapon against the ordinary house fly," Parks added.

City Utilities Manager, Other Officials Warn Sewer Needs Will 'Cost Money'

Public Utilities Manager Erv Leist warned today that "the time has come to face facts" in connection with the city's long overloaded and antiquated sewer system.

Leist, resuming a topic discussed at city council's meeting Tuesday night, emphasized that the present sewer facilities are steadily losing pace alongside Circleville's growth. He explained:

"Nobody is trying to coax the public into some sort of modern setup that we really don't need. The project that is now taking form is something we've been trying to hold off for a long time—a really urgent matter which, if ignored much longer, can lead to all sorts of still greater problems for the community."

"We've been trying to get along without the things we really need because we know they're going to cost money—a lot of money, as we have to judge money for the city these days. But we've been kidding ourselves along with a sewer system that was designed for a much smaller city, and which now is beginning to fall apart in many places under the wear and tear of the years.

"THE ONLY answer is for the public—the taxpayers—to turn their immediate attention to the sewer problems for the whole city. The time has come to face facts and stop trying to patch up a sewer system with temporary, and part-way, projects.

"Unless this is done, the answer is obvious. Sewer difficulties in any city, sooner or later, can catch up with the whole community."

Members of council at their latest meeting stressed how the picture is certain, in one form or another, to hit the city taxpayer in the wallet.

Councilman Richard Penn outlined one sewer improvement program which would need a 100 percent increase in sewer rates. And Councilman George Crites reminded the lawmakers that the old bugaboo—a city income tax—is breathing down the municipality's neck again.

This unhappy outlook from the taxpayers' viewpoint is by no means limited to the city utilities manager. But even so, council passed up a chance Tuesday night to underline still more public needs.

Improvements needed for the city's water system had been studied at a conference prior to council, and some of the details were released by Leist for publication prior to Tuesday's session. But alongside the sewer problems, when the meeting began, council hesitated to delve publicly into the water department needs.

Projects recommended for that branch would cost about $575,000. In one of several versions of the current sewer study, the job would cost $127,000. Sewer rates for all the city would be doubled, and the job itself would be done by the assessment method.

LEIST emphasized this did not mean a duplication, but merely a procedure which would provide money to finance the project and later have enough for continued improvement and maintenance of the vital sewer facilities.

While Circleville eventually will have to turn to sewer problems in many other parts of the community too, the present study is centered on the area between Ted Lewis Park and Forest Cemetery. A relatively small sewer job has already been launched—but not yet fully approved—for the vicinity immediately north of the park. The larger project would cover the whole section south of the cemetery.

Prominent in the technical details the city should enlarge the sewer line branching westward off Court St. at Hayward. Under the large-scale plan, this improved line would eventually reach a new pumping station proposed for the southwestern corner of the bleachers at the ball park.

This would be a much larger pumping station than one already contemplated—in the spot behind the bleachers at the ball park.

General theme of the sewer planning is to take the rapidly growing burden off the sewer line which leads from all the Northend down Court St. to the vicinity of Hargus Creek. The whole future of the city's growth at its northern end, Leist pointed out, is directly involved.

Quick U. S. Supreme Court Action Seen On Race Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate approval of John Marshall Harlan as a Supreme Court justice clears the way for quick action by the court on the issue of school segregation.

After Wednesday's 71-11 vote for the New York jurist, there also was a call for a prompt move to curb presidential treaty-making powers. That bears on an issue raised in hearings on Harlan's nomination where opponents questioned his views on international relations.

But more immediately affected is the court's future action to put into effect its ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

The remaining question in five cases pending before the court is how and on what schedule school systems shall be directed to put that decision into force.

Arguments originally were set for last Dec. 6, but on Nov. 22 the court announced that they would be deferred because of the vacancy created by the death of Justice Robert H. Jackson. Obviously the other justices wanted a full bench for their momentous ruling. Harlan's nomination of Justice's successor has been waiting, also since November.

Now that the new justice is confirmed, the court probably will discuss a hearing date at its next closed conference March 26. The result may be announced at the next open session March 28. Harlan probably will take his seat officially that day.

Other major cases, some of them also held up for a full bench, are likely now to be set down for argument during the spring. Harlan's confirmation will bring him to the bench in time for arguments, already set for the week of April 18, on the appeal of Dr. John H. Peters, Yale medical professor. Peters was fired in 1951 as a special consultant to the U. S. surgeon general on the ground of "reasonable doubt" as to his loyalty. His appeal challenges the loyalty-security program.

Other cases likely now to be called for early argument include attacks by Julius Emspak and Thomas Quinn, officials of the United Electrical Workers Union, on methods of the House committee on un-American activities in questioning witnesses; an appeal by the state of Pennsylvania from a state court decision setting aside the conviction of Steve Nelson, Communist party leader charged with violating a state sedition act; and a government antitrust complaint against the Du Pont company.

These and some others apparently had been held back by the delay on Harlan.

Finnish Tanker Heads For Ceylon

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Owners of the Finnish tanker Aruba said today the vessel probably will call Saturday at Ceylon with its 13,000 tons of jet fuel consigned to Communist China.

They revised plans to send the ship to Red China after her crew, fearful of becoming involved in war action, refused to sail into "danger areas."

A spokesman for the Re-Be Shipping Co., owners of the Aruba, refused to disclose the vessel's eventual destination. There has been speculation she might put into an Indonesian port to reload her cargo into other China-bound ships.

The albatross ranks as the most powerful sea bird on the wing. Its air speed approximates 60 miles an hour. Its wingspread is sometimes 11 feet. The prize flyer of the southern ocean, the albatross can barely take off and land in still air. Thus it lives in the belt of the earth's fiercest winds.

City Utilities Manager, Other Officials Warn Sewer Needs Will 'Cost Money'

Public Utilities Manager Erv Leist warned today that "the time has come to face facts" in connection with the city's long overloaded and antiquated sewer system.

Leist, resuming a topic discussed at city council's meeting Tuesday night, emphasized that the present sewer facilities are steadily losing pace alongside Circleville's growth. He explained:

"Nobody is trying to coax the public into some sort of modern setup that we really don't need. The project that is now taking form is something we've been trying to hold off for a long time—a really urgent matter which, if ignored much longer, can lead to all sorts of still greater problems for the community."

"We've been trying to get along without the things we really need because we know they're going to cost money—a lot of money, as we have to judge money for the city these days. But we've been kidding ourselves along with a sewer system that was designed for a much smaller city, and which now is beginning to fall apart in many places under the wear and tear of the years."

"THE ONLY answer is for the public—the taxpayers—to turn their immediate attention to the sewer problems for the whole city. The time has come to face facts and stop trying to patch up a sewer system with temporary, and part-way, projects."

"Unless this is done, the answer is obvious. Sewer difficulties in any city, sooner or later, can catch up with the whole community."

Members of council at their latest meeting stressed how the picture is certain, in one form or another, to hit the city taxpayer in the wallet.

Councilman Richard Penn outlined one sewer improvement program which would need a 100 percent increase in sewer rates. And Councilman George Crites reminded the lawmaking body that the old bugaboo—a city income tax—is breathing down the municipality's neck again.

This unhappy outlook from the taxpayers' viewpoint is by no means limited to the city utilities manager. But even so, council passed up a chance Tuesday night to underline still more public needs.

Improvements needed for the city's water system had been studied at a conference prior to council, and some of the details were released by Leist for publication prior to Tuesday's session. But alongside the sewer problems, when the meeting began, council hesitated to delve publicly into the water department needs.

Projects recommended for that branch would cost about $575,000.

In one of several versions of the current sewer study, the job would cost $127,000. Sewer rates for all the city would be doubled, and the job itself would be done by the assessment method.

LEIST emphasized this did not mean a duplication, but merely a procedure which would provide money to finance the project and later have enough for continued improvement and maintenance of the vital sewer facilities.

While Circleville eventually will have to turn to sewer problems in many other parts of the community too, the present study is centered on the area between Ted Lewis Park and Forest Cemetery. A relatively small sewer job has already been launched—but not yet fully approved—for the vicinity immediately north of the park.

The larger project would cover the whole section south of the cemetery.

Prominent in the technical details the city should enlarge the sewer line branching westward off Court St. at Hayward. Under the large-scale plan, this improved line would eventually reach a new pumping station proposed for the southwestern corner of the bleachers at the ball park.

This would be a much larger pumping station than one already contemplated—in the spot behind the bleachers at the ball park.

General theme of the sewer planning is to take the rapidly growing burden off the sewer line which leads from all the Northend down Court St. to the vicinity of Hargus Creek. The whole future of the city's growth at its northern end, Leist pointed out, is directly involved.

Quick U. S. Supreme Court Action Seen On Race Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate approval of John Marshall Harlan as a Supreme Court justice clears the way for quick action by the court on the issue of school segregation.

After Wednesday's 71-11 vote for the New York jurist, there also was a call for a prompt move to curb presidential treaty-making powers. That bears on an issue raised in hearings on Harlan's nomination where opponents questioned his views on international relations.

But more immediately affected is the court's future action to put into effect its ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

The remaining question in five cases pending before the court is how and on what schedule school systems shall be directed to put that decision into force.

Arguments originally were set for last Dec. 6, but on Nov. 22 the court announced that they would be deferred because of the vacancy created by the death of Justice Robert H. Jackson. Obviously the other justices wanted a full bench for their momentous ruling. Harlan's nomination of Jackson's successor has been waiting, also since November.

Now that the new justice is confirmed, the court probably will discuss a hearing date at its next closed conference March 26. The result may be announced at the next open session March 28. Harlan probably will take his seat officially that day.

Other major cases, some of them also held up for a full bench, are likely now to be set down for argument during the spring.

Harlan's confirmation will bring him to the bench in time for arguments, already set for the week of April 18, on the appeal of Dr. John H. Peters, Yale medical professor. Peters was fired in 1951 as a special consultant to the U. S. surgeon general on the ground of "reasonable doubt" as to his loyalty. His appeal challenges the loyalty-security program.

Other cases likely now to be called for early argument include attacks by Julius Emspak and Thomas Quinn, officials of the United Electrical Workers Union, on methods of the House committee on un-American activities in questioning witnesses; an appeal by the state of Pennsylvania from a state court decision setting aside the conviction of Steve Nelson, Communist party leader charged with violating a state sedition act; and a government antitrust complaint against the Du Pont company. These and some others apparently had been held back by the delay on Harlan.
